(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

The British Transport Commission, the British Electricity Authority and the North of Scotland Hydro-Electric Board are required under Part V of the Local Government Act, 1948, to make in each year certain payments in lieu of rates for the benefit of local authorities in Scotland. Section 102 (1) of the Act provides that those payments shall, so far as may be prescribed, be taken into account in calculating the product of a penny rate. The Regulations provide for such account being taken of those payments in estimating certain grants payable in respect of schemes under the Housing, Town Planning, etc., (Scotland) Act, 1919.
