

Travel Concessions (London) Act 1982

1982 CHAPTER 12

An Act to confer on the Greater London Council the same powers in respect of travel concessions as those exercisable by the councils of London boroughs and the Common Council of the City of London.

[29th March 1982]

BE IT ENACTED by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

Travel concessions in London. 1968 c. 73. 1969 c. 35.

1.—(1) The Greater London Council shall have the same powers under section 138 of the Transport Act 1968 (travel concessions) as the councils of London boroughs and the Common Council of the City of London; and accordingly in section 40(a) of the Transport (London) Act 1969 (by virtue of which section 138 has effect as if "local authority" in that section included the council of a London borough and the Common Council) after the word "included" there shall be inserted the words "the Council,".

(2) There shall be defrayed out of moneys provided by Parliament any increase attributable to this section in the sums payable out of moneys so provided by way of rate support grants.

Short title.

2. This Act may be cited as the Travel Concessions (London) Act 1982.
