EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order.)

This Order amends the Tuberculosis (Compensation) Order 1964 by increasing from £120 to £180 the maximum limit of compensation which may be paid for cattle slaughtered by the Minister because they are affected with tuberculosis or have reacted to a tuberculin test. For the former reference to the President of the Chartered Auctioneers' and Estate Agents' Institute (now obsolete) there is substituted a reference to the President of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors of the United Kingdom as the person to appoint a valuer in the event of default of agreement on such an appointment between the Minister and a cattle owner.
