EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

The Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food is empowered by section 3 of the Diseases of Animals Act, 1950, to make payments for the eradication of bovine tuberculosis. Such payments are to be made in accordance with a Scheme made by him and approved by the Treasury. The current Scheme is the Tuberculosis (Attested Herds) Scheme, 1950, as amended, S.I. 1950/1126; 1950/1803 (1950 I, pp. 177 and 185).

The power so conferred is exercisable for a period ending on the 30th September, 1958, but may be extended for three successive periods of five years. This Order, applying to England and Wales, accordingly extends the period for five years so as to continue to the 30th September, 1963.

1958 No. 898 (S. 41)

The Tuberculosis (Extension of Payments Period) (Scotland) Order, 1958

Made - - - -	22nd May, 1958
Coming into Operation	1st October, 1958

In exercise of the powers conferred on me by section 3 of the Diseases of Animals Act, 1950(a), as read along with the Transfer of Functions (Animal Health) Order, 1955(b), and of all other powers enabling me in that behalf and with the approval of the Treasury, I hereby make the following Order, a draft of which has been laid before Parliament and has been approved by resolution of each House of Parliament:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Tuberculosis (Extension of Payments Period) (Scotland) Order, 1958.

2. The period ending on the 30th day of September, 1958, referred to in section 3 of the Diseases of Animals Act, 1950 (being the period during which the powers conferred by that section of making payments for the eradication of bovine tuberculosis are exercisable) shall be extended for five years so as to continue for five years from the said date.

Dated this 19th day of May, 1958.

John S. Maclay,
One of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

St. Andrew's House,
Edinburgh 1.

Approved this 22nd day of May, 1958.

Martin Redmayne,
R. Brooman-White,
Two of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.
