UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE.

Application of United Kingdom Acts to Northern Ireland.

MADE BY THE GOVERNOR AND PRIVY COUNCIL OF NORTHERN IRELAND UNDER THE UNEMPLOYMENT INSURANCE (TEMPORARY PROVISIONS) ACT (NORTHERN IRELAND), 1925.

1925. No. 87.

Whereas it is provided by section one of the Unemployment Insurance (Temporary Provisions) Act (Northern Ireland), 1925, (in this Order referred to as " the Act "), that in the event of any Acts being after the passing of the Act passed in the present session of the Parliament of the United Kingdom to amend the Unemployment Insurance Acts, 1920 to 1924, there shall apply to Northern Ireland so much as the Governor of Northern Ireland by Order in Council declares applicable of the enactments contained in any such Act ; and that an Order in Council under the Act may make such adaptations of any such enactments as aforesaid as appear necessary or expedient for carrying into effect the application of those enactments to Northern Ireland, and that as from any date specified in the Order the Unemployment Insurance Acts (Northern Ireland), 1920 to 1924, shall have effect as amended by the enactments applied to Northern Ireland by the Order :

And Whereas it is provided by section two of the Act that the Act shall continue in force until the Parliament of Northern Ireland makes further provision with respect to unemployment insurance in Northern Ireland, but in no case after the thirty-first day of December, nineteen hundred and twenty-five :

And Whereas the Unemployment Insurance Act, 1925, has been passed in the present session of the Parliament of the United Kingdom to amend the said Unemployment Insurance Acts, 1920 to 1924, and contains certain enactments which are set forth in the Schedule to this Order, and are in this Order referred to as " the scheduled enactments " :

Now I, James Albert Edward, Duke of Abercorn, Governor of Northern Ireland, in exercise of the powers vested in me by the Act, and of all other powers enabling me in this behalf, by and with the advice of the Privy Council of Northern Ireland, do hereby order and declare as follows :—

1. It is hereby declared that the scheduled enactments are applicable to Northern Ireland, and they are hereby applied accordingly with the adaptations appearing therein for the period during which the Act continues in force.

2. The Unemployment Insurance Acts (Northern Ireland), 1920 to 1924, shall have effect as amended by the scheduled enactments as from the date of the making of this Order.

3.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Unemployment Insurance Order (Northern Ireland), 1925.

(2) References in the scheduled enactments to any enactment of the Parliament of the United Kingdom shall be construed as references to such enactment as it applies in Northern Ireland.

Given at the Council Chamber, Stormont Castle, Belfast, this 27th day of August, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-five.

(Signed), H. M. Pollock,
John M. Andrews,
J. Milne Barbour.

SCHEDULE TO THE FOREGOING ORDER.

THE SCHEDULED ENACTMENTS.

Amendment as to statutory conditions.

2. Sub-section (2) of section three of the Unemployment Insurance (No. 2) Act (Northern Ireland), 1924 (which provides that during the period between the commencement of that Act and the first day of October, nineteen hundred and twenty-five, a person is to be entitled to receive benefit, if the Ministry of Labour for Northern Ireland (in this Act referred to as "the Ministry") thinks fit so to direct, notwithstanding that the first statutory condition may not have been fulfilled in his case), shall have effect as though the date on which the Unemployment Insurance (Temporary Provisions) Act (Northern Ireland), 1925, ceases to be in force, were therein substituted for the first day of October, nineteen hundred and twenty-five.

Amendment as to waiting period.

3. Paragraph 1 of Part I. of the First Schedule to the Unemployment Insurance (No. 2) Act (Northern Ireland), 1924, (which provides that benefit shall be payable in respect of each week after the first three days of a continuous period of unemployment), shall from the first day of October, nineteen hundred and twenty-five, have effect as if the words "the first week" were therein substituted for the words "the first three days."

Saving, repeal and short title.

5.—(1) Notwithstanding anything in any Act, it shall not be necessary for the Ministry at any time before the date on which the Unemployment Insurance (Temporary Provisions) Act (Northern Ireland), 1925, ceases to be in force, to require any association to make for the purposes of proviso (a) to sub-section (1) of section seventeen of the Unemployment Insurance Act, 1920, any greater provision for unemployment benefit than would have been required to be made for those purposes under that Act as originally enacted.

(3) The enactments set out in the Third Schedule to this Act are hereby repealed to the extent mentioned in the third column of that Schedule.

(4) This Act may be cited as the Unemployment Insurance Act, 1925, and shall be construed as one with the Unemployment Insurance Acts (Northern Ireland), 1920 to 1924, and those Acts and this Act may be cited together as the Unemployment Insurance Acts (Northern Ireland), 1920 to 1925.
