EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order amends the Upholstery Cloth (Utility) Order, 1948. The principal change is that the manufacturer's maximum selling price of a number of cloths is increased; the increases are indicated by a plus (+) sign in the Schedule.

| Coming into Operation | 8th November, 1948 |

The Board of Trade in pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by Regulations 55 and 55AB of the Defence (General) Regulations, 1939(a), as having effect by virtue of the Supplies and Services (Transitional Powers) Act, 1945(b), as extended by the Supplies and Services (Extended Purposes) Act, 1947(c), hereby order as follows:—

1. The Upholstery Cloth (Utility) Order, 1948(d) as amended(e), shall have effect:—

(a) during the period commencing with the 8th day of November, 1948, and ending with the 7th day of February, 1949, as if for Article 2 there were substituted the following Article:—

"2.—(1) No person shall supply any utility goods manufactured by him being cloth described in the Schedule to the Woven Cloth (Wool and Animal Fibre) (Manufacture, Marking and Supply) Order, 1948(f), in relation to the specification number 110, unless—

(a) the person to be supplied has, after the 20th day of March, 1944, surrendered to him a written declaration that he is carrying on a business of supplying upholstery cloth wholesale; or

(b) the order for the goods is endorsed with a statement signed by the person ordering them that he requires them for the purpose of manufacturing utility furniture therefrom in accordance with a licence issued to him by the Board of Trade in pursuance of any Order made by the Board under Regulation 55 of the Defence (General) Regulations, 1939, or that he holds a licence issued to him by the Board of Trade under such an Order authorising him to apply the utility mark to furniture manufactured by him.

(2) No person shall, in the course of his business, supply any utility goods not manufactured by him, being cloth of the specification number referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article, unless the order for the goods is endorsed as aforesaid.";

(b) during the period commencing with the 8th day of November, 1948, and ending with the 7th day of May, 1949, as if for Article 3 there were substituted the following:—

" 3.—(1) A person may use any utility goods being cloth of a specification number included in Part I of the Schedule hereto or of such a specification number preceded by the letter 'Z' in the manufacture of any other goods; but, notwithstanding the provisions of Article 4 of the Utility Mark and Apparel and Textiles (General Provisions) Order, 1947(a), as amended(b), no person who uses any such goods in the manufacture or repair of furniture shall apply the utility mark to that furniture by reason only of his having used any such utility goods in the manufacture or repair thereof.

(2) A person may use any utility goods being the cloth referred to in Article 2 hereof in the manufacture (other than the recovering) of utility furniture under the authority of such a licence as is referred to in head (b) of paragraph (1) of Article 2 or furniture to which he intends to apply the utility mark under the authority of such a licence."; and

(c) during the period commencing with the 8th day of November, 1948, and ending with the 7th day of May, 1949, as if after Article 4 there were inserted the following Article:—

" 4A. The provisions of Article 4 hereof shall not have effect in relation to goods (not being the cloth referred to in Article 2) supplied—

(a) by exportation from the United Kingdom (otherwise than to the Isle of Man or the Channel Islands); or

(b) to a person who surrenders a declaration in writing, signed and dated by him that he requires those goods for supply by such exportation as aforesaid."

2. This Order may be cited as the Upholstery Cloth (Utility) (Amendment) (No. 2) Order, 1948, and shall come into operation on the 8th day of November, 1948.

Dated this 29th day of October, 1948.

Arthur G. Bottomley,
Parliamentary Secretary to the Board of Trade.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order relaxes the existing restrictions on the supply and the use of cotton, rayon and linen utility upholstery cloth. These are temporary relaxations and will cease to have effect after the 7th February, 1949, and the 7th May, 1949, respectively. It also provides that the supply of such upholstery cloth by, or for, export shall be free from price control during the period commencing with the 8th November, 1948, and ending with the 7th May, 1949.
