The Utility Goods (Supply) Order, 1952

Made - - - -	11*th March*, 1952
Laid before Parliament	13*th March*, 1952
Coming into Operation	17*th March*, 1952

The Board of Trade in pursuance of the powers conferred upon them by Regulation 55 of the Defence (General) Regulations, 1939, as having effect by virtue of the Supplies and Services (Transitional Powers) Act, 1945(a), as extended by the Supplies and Services (Extended Purposes) Act, 1947(b), and the Supplies and Services (Defence Purposes) Act, 1951(c), and continued in force by the Supplies and Services (Continuance) Order, 1951(d), hereby order as follows:—

1. A person shall not on or after the 17th day of March, 1952, supply any goods (other than furniture) to which he has applied the utility mark or any specification number except—

(a) goods to which he had lawfully applied that mark or specification number before the said date;

(a) 9 & 10 Geo. 6. c. 10; and S.R. & O. 1945/1618; 1945 II, p. 48.
(b) 10 & 11 Geo. 6. c. 55. (c) 14 & 15 Geo. 6. c. 25. (d) S.I. 1951/2116; 1951 III, p. 27.

(b) goods—

(i) being supplied in pursuance of a contract, entered into before, and valid and enforceable immediately before, the said date, providing for the supply of goods to which that mark or any specification number had been applied; and

(ii) to which he could lawfully have applied that mark or that specification number before the said date; or

(c) under the authority of a licence granted by the Board of Trade under this Order and in accordance with any conditions attached thereto.

2. A person shall not supply, offer to supply or advertise any controlled goods upon or in relation to which the word "utility" or any word resembling that word is used, unless those goods are utility goods or goods which conform to a British Standard published by the British Standards Institution, without taking sufficient steps to prevent the use thereof from importing directly or indirectly a reference to utility goods or to goods which so conform.

3. In this Order:—

"controlled goods" means the goods specified in the First Schedule hereto;

"specification number" means a number (whether or not preceded by any letter or letters) which was required to be applied to any controlled goods by any Order made by the Board of Trade relating to utility goods;

"supply" means supply in pursuance of a contract of sale, work and labour with or without the provision of materials, sale or return, hire, hire-purchase, barter or a contract of any other description, and supply as a gift;

"utility goods" means any controlled goods to which the utility mark has been applied under the authority of, or in pursuance of a requirement contained in, this Order or any other Order made by the Board of Trade;

"utility mark" means the mark shown in the Second Schedule hereto.

4. This Order may be cited as the Utility Goods (Supply) Order, 1952, and shall come into operation on the 17th day of March, 1952.

Dated this 11th day of March, 1952.

Peter Thorneycroft,
President of the Board of Trade.
