Act may be cited as the Private Lunatic Asylums (Ireland) Act, 1842,) and this Act together with that Act may be cited as "The Private Lunatic Asylums (Ireland) Acts, 1842 and 1874;" and this Act may be cited separately as the Private Lunatic Asylums (Ireland) Act, 1874.

Accounting for money for licenses and payment of expenses charged thereon.

2. All moneys paid for a license to keep a house for the reception of lunatics granted in pursuance of the Private Lunatic Asylums (Ireland) Act, 1842, shall be accounted for and paid into the receipt of the Exchequer, and carried to the Consolidated Fund by such persons and in such manner as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury may from time to time direct.

All fees, travelling expenses, and allowances directed by the Private Lunatic Asylums (Ireland) Act, 1842, to be paid by the inspectors, and all travelling and other expenses incurred by the inspectors in the execution of that Act, shall, where the amount or scale thereof has been sanctioned by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, be paid out of moneys provided by Parliament.

Repeal.

3. The Act mentioned in the schedule to this Act is hereby repealed to the extent in the third column of that schedule mentioned: Provided that this repeal shall not affect anything done or suffered before the passing of this Act under the enactments hereby repealed; and that anything done before the passing of this Act with the sanction of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, or of Her Majesty's Paymaster-General, which would have been lawful if this Act had then passed, shall be deemed to have been lawful and duly done.

CHAPTER 75.

An Act to explain the Vaccination Act, 1871. [7th August 1874.]

34 & 35 Vict. c. 98. s. 5.

WHEREAS by section five of the Vaccination Act, 1871, it is enacted, amongst other things, that, subject to the provisions of that Act, the Local Government Board shall have the same powers with respect to guardians and vaccination officers in matters relating to vaccination as they have with respect to guardians and officers of guardians in matters relating to the relief of the poor, and may make rules, orders, and regulations accordingly:

And whereas doubts are entertained whether the Local Government Board are empowered under the said Act to make rules, orders, and regulations with respect to the proceedings to be taken by the guardians or their officers for the enforcement of the provisions of the Vaccination Acts, 1867 and 1871:

Be it therefore enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Rules under 34 & 35 Vict. c. 98. to extend to proceedings and expenses.

1. The powers conferred by the said recited section shall be deemed to extend to and include the making of rules, orders, and regulations prescribing the duties of guardians and their officers in relation to the institution and conduct of the proceedings to be taken for enforcing the provisions of the said Acts, and the payment of the costs and expenses relating thereto, and rules, orders, and regulations under this Act shall be deemed to be made under the said section.

Short title.

2. This Act may be cited as The Vaccination Act, 1874.

CHAPTER 76.

An Act to continue various expiring Laws. [7th August 1874.]

WHEREAS the several Acts mentioned in column one of the schedule to this Act are, to the extent specified in column two of that schedule, limited to expire at the times specified in respect thereof in column four of the said schedule:

And whereas it is expedient to provide for the continuance in this Act mentioned of such Acts, and of the enactments amending the same:

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Expiring Laws Continuance Act, 1874.
