SCHEDULE

Regulations for Term of Office of the Disciplinary Committee of the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons

The Council of the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons, in exercise of the powers conferred on them by Section 14 of the Veterinary Surgeons Act, 1948, hereby make the following Regulations:—

1. In these Regulations the following expressions shall have the meanings hereby assigned to them respectively, that is to say:

"Council" means the Council of the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons as constituted under the Veterinary Surgeons Act, 1948.

"Annual General Meeting" means the Annual General Meeting of the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons as provided for under the Charters of the College.

"The Act" means the Veterinary Surgeons Act, 1948.

2. The term of office of members of the Disciplinary Committee appointed at the first meeting of the Council held after the Annual General Meeting in the year 1955 shall be:

(a) The Chairman—a period expiring at the first meeting of the Council to be held after the Annual General Meeting in the year 1959;

(b) of the eight members other than the Chairman

(i) two members determined by the Council by secret ballot—a period expiring at the first meeting of the Council to be held after the Annual General Meeting in the year 1956;

(ii) two members determined as aforesaid—a period expiring at the first meeting of the Council to be held after the Annual General Meeting in the year 1957;

(iii) two members determined as aforesaid—a period expiring at the first meeting of the Council to be held after the Annual General Meeting in the year 1958;

(iv) the remaining two members—a period expiring at the first meeting of the Council to be held after the Annual General Meeting in the year 1959.

3. Subject to the provisions of these Regulations relating to casual vacancies, the term of office of each of the successors in office of the nine members specified in Clause 2 of these Regulations shall be a period expiring at first meeting of the Council to be held after the fourth Annual General Meeting following the year in which the successor is appointed.

4. Any member of the Disciplinary Committee may resign from membership of the Committee by giving notice in writing to the Registrar of the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons and his resignation shall have effect from the date of his notice.

5. Where any casual vacancy in the membership of the Disciplinary Committee occurs by reason of death or under Clause 4 of these Regulations or for any other reason, and the Council, before the end of the period for which he was appointed, appoint another person in his place, that person shall hold office for the remainder of that period.

6. These Regulations shall come into operation on the day of the first Annual General Meeting of the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons held after the making of these Regulations.

In witness whereof the Common Seal of the Council is herewith affixed this 1st day of June, 1955.

Henry Sumner, President.

T. J. Bosworth, }
Joan O. Joshua, } Two Members of Council.

W. G. R. Oates, Registrar.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order of Council approves Regulations made by the Council of the Royal College of Veterinary Surgeons, under the Veterinary Surgeons Act, 1948, ss. 14, 28 (1), to fix the term of office of members of their Disciplinary Committee.

The Chairman and all other members are as a general rule to hold office for periods of approximately four years, beginning and ending at the first meeting of the Council after the Annual General Meeting of the College in the appropriate year. Where casual vacancies are filled, the term of office of the person appointed is to be so much of the term of the person whose place he takes as remained unexpired.

The Regulations provide specially that, for the eight members appointed in 1955 (other than the Chairman), the term of office of two shall end in each of the years from 1956 to 1959.
