SUPPLIED FOR THE PUBLIC SERVICE

CHAPTER 23.

An Act to amend the Law as to the Calling out of Volunteers for actual Military Service. A.D. 1895.

[6th July 1895.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

Amendment of 26 & 27 Vict. c. 65. ss. 17–20.

1. Sections seventeen to twenty of the Volunteer Act, 1863, shall apply in the case of any part of a volunteer corps in like manner as they apply in the case of a whole volunteer corps.

Service of volunteers in cases of emergency.

2. Whenever an order for the embodiment of the militia is in force, any member of a volunteer corps may offer himself for actual military service; and, if the services of such number of members of any corps as in the opinion of the Secretary of State is sufficient to enable them to be separately organised are accepted, then those members may be called out, either as a corps, or as part of a corps, and this Act and sections seventeen to twenty of the Volunteer Act, 1863, shall apply accordingly.

Short title.

3. This Act may be cited as the Volunteer Act, 1895.
