Iain Macleod,
Minister of Labour and National Service.

ESTABLISHMENT

1956 No. 1437

The Wages Council (Rubber Proofed Garment Making Industry) Order, 1956

Made - - - -	13th September, 1956
Laid before Parliament	18th September, 1956
Coming into Operation	15th October, 1956

Whereas the Minister of Labour and National Service (hereinafter referred to as "the Minister") has received, pursuant to section 4 of the Wages Councils Act, 1945(a), a wages council recommendation for the establishment of a wages council in respect of workers in the Rubber Proofed Garment Making Industry and their employers;

(a) 8 & 9 Geo. 6. c. 17. (b) 52 & 53 Vict. c. 63.

Now, therefore, the Minister by virtue of the powers conferred on him by sections 4 and 5 of the said Act and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, for the purpose of giving effect to the said recommendation, hereby makes the following Order:—

1. There shall be established in respect of the workers to whom this Order applies as set out in the Schedule hereto, and their employers, a wages council to be known as the Rubber Proofed Garment Making Industry Wages Council.

2.—(1) This Order may be cited as the Wages Council (Rubber Proofed Garment Making Industry) Order, 1956, and shall come into operation on the 15th day of October, 1956.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889(a), applies to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Dated the 13th day of September, 1956.

Iain Macleod,
Minister of Labour and National Service

SCHEDULE

Workers to whom the Order applies

1. Subject to the provisions of paragraph 2 of this Schedule the workers to whom this Order applies are all workers employed in Great Britain—

(1) in manufacturing, altering, repairing, renovating or re-making rubber proofed garments; or

(2) in warehousing or packing rubber proofed garments or in any other operation incidental to any of the activities included in (1) of this paragraph, where the warehousing, packing or other operation is carried on in conjunction with any of the activities included as aforesaid.

2. This Order does not apply to workers—

(1) in respect of employment in connection with headgear, unless the employment is in conjunction or association with the manufacture, alteration, repair, renovation, or re-making of rubber proofed garments other than headgear; or

(2) in relation to whom any wages council (other than the Rubber Proofed Garment Making Industry Wages Council) operates in respect of any employment which is for the time being within the field of operation of that wages council.

3. In this Order the expression "rubber proofed garments" does not include any garment or headgear made from oil or chemically proofed fabrics or from plastic film or textiles processed with plastic, but, save as aforesaid, means all garments (including headgear) made from textiles processed with rubber or rubber substitute, or from any material if in the manufacture of the garment any of the processes of smearing, sticking, or cementing with a solution of rubber or rubber substitute either by hand or machine, is involved.

(a) 52 & 53 Vict. c. 63.
