"'APPRENTICE COOK' is a male worker under the age of twenty-one years who is employed during the whole of his time under a written contract of apprenticeship which has been duly executed and which contains the provisions set out in (a) and (b) below or provisions substantially to the same effect and no provisions contrary thereto :—

(a) the worker of his own free will and with the consent of his guardian binds himself to serve the employer as his apprentice for a term of not less than five years ;

(b) the employer will employ the worker as his apprentice during the said term and to the best of his power, skill and knowledge, instruct the worker or cause him to be instructed by a Head Cook in the underlying principles of cookery including the preparation, cooking and service of fish, meat, poultry, game, vegetables, eggs, pastry, cakes and sauces:

Provided that the minimum period of five years' apprenticeship under sub-paragraph (a) above shall be reduced—

(i) where the worker has after attaining the age of fifteen years received a course of instruction in cookery in a technical class at any university, college, school or similar establishment, by a period equal to the duration of such course of instruction subject to a maximum reduction of two years ;

(ii) where the worker has after attaining the age of sixteen years continued to receive at a school full time general education which does not include a course of instruction in cookery in a technical class, by a period equal to the duration of such full time general education received after he attained the age of sixteen years subject to a maximum reduction of one year;

but so that the total reduction in the minimum period of any worker's apprenticeship shall not be more than two years."

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order, which has effect from the 14th October, 1957, amends the Wages Regulation (Industrial and Staff Canteen Undertakings) Order, 1955 (Order I.S.C. (25)), as amended by the Wages Regulation (Industrial and Staff Canteen Undertakings) (Amendment) Order, 1956 (Order I.S.C. (27)), by increasing the statutory minimum remuneration fixed by those Orders and altering the definition of an apprentice cook. Order I.S.C. (27) is revoked.

New provisions are printed in italics.
