EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

Regulation 1 authorises notaries public in the United Kingdom to witness applications and declarations and to administer oaths of allegiance for the purposes of the British Nationality Act, 1948, and extends the power of the Secretary of State to authorise persons to perform those functions in foreign countries.

Regulation 2 prescribes a new table of fees. The present fees for grants of certificates of naturalisation are increased by 50 per centum but no fee will in future be payable for the registration of British subjects and citizens of the Republic of Ireland as citizens of the United Kingdom and Colonies. Of the fee payable for the grant of a certificate of naturalisation the payment to be made on application is increased from £1 to £2.

NIGHT WORKERS

Paragraph 2

The minimum remuneration for a night worker (as defined in paragraph 30) who is employed in the circumstances specified in sub-paragraph (1) or (2) of paragraph 6 and who is not a shift worker or a split duty worker (as defined in paragraph 30) is that for the corresponding description of worker in the same area specified in paragraph 1 INCREASED IN EACH CASE BY ONE-FIFTH.

SHIFT WORKERS

Paragraph 3

The minimum remuneration for a shift worker (as defined in paragraph 30) who is employed in the circumstances specified in sub-paragraph (1) or (2) of paragraph 6 is that for the corresponding description of worker in the same area specified in paragraph 1 with the ADDITION OF 1d. per hour.

SPLIT DUTY WORKERS

Paragraph 4

The minimum remuneration for a split duty worker (as defined in paragraph 30) who is employed in the circumstances specified in paragraph 6 (2) is that for the corresponding description of worker specified in column 2 of paragraph 1 with the ADDITION OF 2d. per hour.

WORKERS TEMPORARILY TRANSFERRED TO HIGHER GRADE WORK

Paragraph 5

Where a worker is required temporarily to perform the duties of a worker entitled to a higher minimum remuneration than himself and is engaged on such higher graded duties for four or more hours on any day he shall be paid for the whole of his time on that day not less than the minimum remuneration appropriate to the worker of the higher grade.

PROVISION OF MEALS, FULL BOARD AND LODGING, OVERALLS AND HEADWEAR

Paragraph 6

(1) The minimum remuneration in column 1 of paragraph 1 is payable to a worker not being a worker to whom sub-paragraph (2) hereof applies who is employed in the circumstances that he is provided by the employer, subject in the case of (b) to the requisite supplies being available, with—

(a) such meals as are available during the time the worker is on duty and as are provided for the persons using the canteen ; and

(b) a reasonable supply in good repair of clean overalls and (except in the case of a supervisor, manager, manageress, steward, stewardess or porter) of clean headwear for the use of the worker while at work.

(2) The minimum remuneration in column 2 of paragraph 1 is payable to a worker employed in the circumstances that he is provided by the employer, subject in the case of (b) to the requisite supplies being available, with—

(a) full board and lodging (as defined in paragraph 30) for 7 days a week ; and

(b) a reasonable supply in good repair of clean overalls and (except in the case of a supervisor, manager, manageress, steward, stewardess or porter) of clean headwear for the use of the worker while at work.

WORKERS NOT SUPPLIED WITH MEALS, FULL BOARD, LODGING, OVERALLS OR HEADWEAR

Paragraph 7

The minimum remuneration for a worker who is not employed in the circumstances specified in paragraph 6 (1) or 6 (2) is :—

(1) In the case of a worker who is not provided by his employer with meals as specified in paragraph 6 (1) (a) or full board and lodging, the remuneration specified in paragraph 1 (column 1), 2, 3 or 5 for the corresponding description of worker in the same area INCREASED BY 12s. PER WEEK.

(2) In the case of a worker who is provided by his employer with full board or lodging (but not full board and lodging) the remuneration specified in paragraph 1 (column 2), 2, 3, 4 or 5 for the corresponding description of worker in the same area increased by the following amounts :—

(a) Where lodging is provided but not full board :—

(i) Workers 17 years of age or over	...	AN INCREASE of 18s. 8d. per week of seven days or 2s. 8d. per day.
(ii) Workers under 17 years of age ...	...	AN INCREASE of 14s. 7d. per week of seven days or 2s. 1d. per day.

(b) Where full board is provided but not lodging:—

(i) Workers 17 years of age or over	...	AN INCREASE of 10s. 6d. per week of seven days or 1s. 6d. per day.
(ii) Workers under 17 years of age ...	...	AN INCREASE of 7s. 0d. per week of seven days or 1s. 0d. per day.

(3) In the case of any worker who is not provided by his employer with a reasonable supply in good repair of clean overalls and headwear as specified in paragraph 6 (1) (b) or (2) (b) the remuneration specified in paragraph 1, 2, 3, 4 or 5 for the corresponding description of worker in the same area INCREASED BY 2s. 0d. PER WEEK.

BASIS OF REMUNERATION

Paragraph 8

(1) The weekly rates specified in this Schedule except those specified in paragraph 7 (2) relate to a week of 47 hours and except as provided in paragraph 9 are subject to a proportionate reduction according as the number of hours worked is less than 47.

(2) In calculating the remuneration for the purposes of this Schedule recognised breaks for meal times shall be excluded.

GUARANTEED WEEKLY REMUNERATION FOR FULL-TIME WORKERS

Paragraph 9

(1) Where in any week a full-time worker (as defined in paragraph 30) works for the employer for less than 47 hours he shall, subject to and in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph, be paid in respect of that week not less than the guaranteed weekly remuneration.

(2) The guaranteed weekly remuneration payable in respect of any week to a full-time worker

(a) who normally works for the employer for less than 40 hours in the week, is the remuneration to which he would be entitled under this Schedule (calculated as in paragraph 8), for 44 hours work;

(b) who normally works for the employer for 40 hours or more in the week, is the remuneration to which he would be entitled under this Schedule for 47 hours work;

(c) who normally works for the employer for less than 47 hours in the week by reason only of the fact that he does not hold himself out as available for work for more than the number of hours he normally works in the week and who has so informed the employer in writing, is the remuneration (calculated as in paragraph 8 of this Schedule), for the number of hours normally worked by the worker for the employer.

(3) Guaranteed weekly remuneration is not payable in respect of any week unless the worker is capable of and available for work (except as respects any time allowed to him as a holiday)

(i) in the case of a worker to whom sub-paragraph (2) (a) applies, for 44 hours in that week, including the hours normally worked by him;

(ii) in the case of a worker to whom sub-paragraph (2) (b) applies, for 47 hours in that week, including the hours normally worked by him; and

(iii) in the case of a worker to whom sub-paragraph (2) (c) applies, for the number of hours normally worked by him; and is willing to perform such duties outside his normal occupation as may reasonably be required by the employer when work is not available for him in his normal occupation in the undertaking.

(4) If the employer is prevented from providing employment by reason of strikes or other circumstances outside his control and has given the worker not less than four days' notice of his inability to provide such employment and the notice has expired, the provisions in regard to the guaranteed payment shall not apply and the worker shall be entitled in that week to payment in respect of hours actually worked.

(5) In order to ascertain for the purposes of sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph whether a full-time worker has worked in any week for less than 47 hours any day or days allowed and taken as holidays by the worker under a wages regulation order shall be treated as a day or days on which the worker worked for the number of hours usually worked by him on that day of the week or those days of the week as the case may be.

(6) Where in any week any day or days have been allowed and taken as holidays by a worker under a wages regulation order the guaranteed weekly remuneration which that worker would be entitled to under the preceding sub-paragraphs of this paragraph shall be reduced by the amount of remuneration received or receivable by him in respect of the day or days of holiday aforesaid.

OVERTIME RATES

WORKERS OTHER THAN SHIFT AND SPLIT DUTY WORKERS

Paragraph 10

(1) Subject to the provisions of paragraph 15 overtime rates shall be paid as follows:—

(a) to workers other than night workers, shift workers and split duty workers (as defined in paragraph 30):—

For the first 2 hours worked in excess of 8½ hours on any of five weekdays in the week other than the weekly short day or in excess of 4½ hours on the weekly short day	Time-and-a-quarter
For all time worked thereafter on any of those days	Time-and-a-half
For all time worked on Sunday	Double time

The weekly short day shall be Saturday or any other week day substituted therefor by agreement between an employer and a worker or his representative.

Provided that in the case of a worker who customarily attends only on five days a week the following overtime rates shall apply:—

For the first 2 hours worked in excess of 9½ hours on any of four weekdays on which he customarily attends, or in excess of 9 hours on the remaining day on which he customarily attends	Time-and-a-quarter
For all time worked thereafter on any of such days	Time-and-a-half
For the first 2 hours worked on a sixth day (not including any time worked on Sunday) on which attendance is not customarily required	Time-and-a-quarter
For all time worked thereafter on that day (not including any time worked on Sunday) ...	Time-and-a-half
For all time worked on Sunday	Double time

(b) to night workers other than shift workers and split duty workers (as defined in paragraph 30):—

For the first 2 hours worked in excess of 9½ hours on any four of the days from Monday to Friday inclusive or in excess of 9 hours on the remaining day from Monday to Friday inclusive	Time-and-a-quarter
For all time worked thereafter on any of such days	Time-and-a-half
For the first 2 hours worked on Saturday ...	Time-and-a-quarter
For all time worked thereafter on a Saturday ...	Time-and-a-half
For all time worked on Sunday	Double time

(2) The whole of a worker's turn of duty shall be counted for the purpose of ascertaining the overtime rate payable and where the turn extends beyond midnight shall be regarded as having been worked on the day upon which it commences.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph all time worked between midnight on Saturday and midnight on Sunday shall be paid at double time and all time worked on Monday which is part of a turn of duty which normally commences on Sunday shall be regarded as overtime and paid as follows:—

For such time as is required to complete 2 hours from the commencement of the turn of duty ...	Time-and-a-quarter
For the remainder of the time	Time-and-a-half

The time worked on Monday aforesaid shall not be included in calculating overtime on any turn of duty which commences on Monday.

SHIFT WORKERS

Paragraph 11

(1) Subject to the provisions of paragraph 15, overtime rates shall be paid to shift workers (as defined in paragraph 30) as follows:—

(a) to workers whose shift comprises six full turns of duty—

For the first 2 hours worked in excess of 8 hours on any of the six turns of duty	Time-and-a-quarter
For all time worked thereafter on such turns of duty	Time-and-a-half
For all time worked on a seventh turn of duty or on the normal rest day	Double time
For all time worked in excess of 47 hours in any week exclusive of any time in respect of which overtime rates may be payable under the preceding provisions of this sub-paragraph	Time-and-a-quarter

(b) to workers whose shift comprises five full turns and one short turn of duty—

For the first 2 hours worked in excess of 8½ hours on any of the five full turns of duty or in excess of 4½ hours on the one short turn of duty ...	Time-and-a-quarter
For all time worked thereafter on any such turns of duty	Time-and-a-half
For all time worked on a seventh turn of duty or on the normal rest day	Double time

(c) to workers whose shift comprises five turns of duty—

For the first 2 hours worked in excess of 9½ hours on any of four turns of duty, or in excess of 9 hours on the remaining turn of duty	Time-and-a-quarter
For all time worked thereafter on any such turns of duty	Time-and-a-half
For all time worked on the first day of the week on which attendance is not normally required	Time-and-a-quarter
For all time worked on the second day of the week on which attendance is not normally required	Double time

(2) A shift worker shall in addition to the above be paid an amount calculated at the rate of 1d. per hour for all overtime worked in respect of which an overtime rate is payable as above.

(3) For the purpose of calculating the time worked in any week a shift worker who is allowed and has taken a holiday in any week under a wages regulation order shall be treated as having worked on any such day of holiday the number of hours usually worked by him on the turn of duty which he would otherwise have worked if the holiday had not been allowed.

SPLIT DUTY WORKERS

Paragraph 12

Subject to the provisions of paragraph 15, overtime rates shall be paid to split duty workers (as defined in paragraph 30) as follows:—

For the first 4 hours worked in excess of 47 hours in any week on days other than the normal rest day	Time-and-a-quarter
For all time worked thereafter on days other than the normal rest day	Time-and-a-half
For all time worked on a normal rest day	Double time

A split duty worker shall in addition to the above be paid an amount calculated at the rate of 2d. per hour for all overtime worked in respect of which an overtime rate is payable as above.

For the purpose of calculating the time worked in any week a split duty worker who is allowed and has taken a holiday in any week under a wages regulation order shall be treated as having worked on any such day of holiday the number of hours usually worked by him on the turn of duty which he would otherwise have worked if the holiday had not been allowed.

JEWISH UNDERTAKINGS

Paragraph 13

Where it is, or becomes, the established practice in a Jewish undertaking for the employer to require attendance on Sunday instead of Saturday, the provisions of paragraph 10 shall apply in like manner as if in such provisions Sunday were treated as a weekday and the word "Sunday" were substituted for "Saturday" and the word "Saturday" for "Sunday."

WORK ON CUSTOMARY HOLIDAYS

Paragraph 14

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Schedule where a worker is required to work:—

(i) on any day of customary holiday allowed under a wages regulation order; or

(ii) a turn of duty which commences on the day preceding any day of customary holiday and extends beyond midnight or a turn of duty which commences on the day of customary holiday and extends into the following day, he shall, in addition to the minimum remuneration appropriate to him under the foregoing provisions, be paid for all time so worked between midnight and midnight on the day of customary holiday, one half of the minimum remuneration which would be appropriate to the corresponding description of worker in the same area employed in the circumstances specified in sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 6.

SPECIAL PROVISIONS RELATING TO WORKERS WHO ARE PROVIDED BY THEIR EMPLOYER WITH FULL BOARD AND LODGING

Paragraph 15

(1) The provisions of this paragraph apply in the case of a worker who is provided by his employer with full board and lodging.

(2) Where a worker to whom this paragraph applies works on a seventh turn of duty or on a normal rest day pursuant to an agreement in writing with his employer that the employer will allow the worker an equivalent time off within a period of one month in lieu of time so worked, the worker shall for the purposes of the provisions of this Part of this Schedule relating to remuneration be treated as though during such turn of duty or on that day as the case may be he had performed no work to which the Schedule applies.

(3) Where a worker to whom this paragraph applies is allowed time off pursuant to an agreement as is specified in sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph he shall be treated for the purposes of the provisions of this Part of this Schedule relating to remuneration as though in respect of that time he had been employed by the employer in his usual occupation.

PART II

HOLIDAYS AND HOLIDAY REMUNERATION

CUSTOMARY HOLIDAYS

Paragraph 16

An employer shall (except as provided in paragraph 17) allow to every worker to whom this Schedule applies, who at the date of the holiday has been in his employment for not less than six days and (unless excused by the employer or absent by reason of proved sickness) has worked for the employer the number of hours ordinarily worked by him on the last working day on which work was available to him preceding the holiday, a holiday on each of the following days:—

(1) In England and Wales—Christmas Day (or if Christmas Day falls on a Sunday, such weekday as may be prescribed by national proclamation or the next following Tuesday), Boxing Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Whit Monday, August Bank Holiday and all nationally proclaimed holidays.

(2) In Scotland—

(a) New Year's Day (or the following day if New Year's Day falls on a Sunday), the local Spring Holiday, the local Autumn holiday, and all nationally proclaimed holidays;

(b) three other weekdays in the course of a calendar year to be fixed by the employer and notified to the worker not less than three weeks before the holiday, or any other day or days falling within the same calendar year which may be substituted for such day or days by agreement between the employer and the worker or his representative.

Provided that where, in any establishment it is not the custom or practice to observe such days as are specified in sub-paragraph (1) or (2) (a) of this paragraph as holidays, other days not fewer in number may, by agreement between the employer and the worker or his representative, be substituted for the above-mentioned days.

Paragraph 17

A worker may be required to work on any day specified in paragraph 16 above, or on any day substituted therefor under the proviso to that paragraph, and if so required he shall be allowed another day of holiday in lieu.

Provided that, in the case of a worker who is ordinarily employed on turns of duty extending beyond midnight, another day of holiday shall not be allowed in lieu of a day of customary holiday if the worker having worked on one turn of duty which finishes or commences on the customary holiday has not been required to work on another turn of duty which he would otherwise be required to work and which would commence or finish on the customary holiday.

REMUNERATION FOR CUSTOMARY HOLIDAYS

Paragraph 18

(1) Subject to the provisions of sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph, for each day allowed as a holiday under paragraphs 16 and 17 of this Schedule, the worker shall be paid the appropriate statutory minimum remuneration (as defined in paragraph 30) to which he would have been entitled had the day not been a day of holiday and he had worked the number of hours of work usually worked by him on that day of the week, and

(i) in the case of a worker other than a worker to whom the provisions of sub-paragraph (ii) of this sub-paragraph apply AN ADDITION OF 2s. 0d. for each day of holiday or

(ii) in the case of a worker who is employed in the circumstances that he is provided by his employer with full board and lodging or either full board or lodging, AN ADDITION OF—

(a) 4s. 2d. if the worker is 17 years of age or over, or

(b) 3s. 1d. if the worker is under 17 years of age

for each day of holiday except where board and lodging is available to the worker on that day.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of the foregoing sub-paragraph, payment of remuneration in respect of the said holiday is subject to the condition that the worker (unless excused by the employer or absent by reason of proved sickness) worked for the employer the number of hours ordinarily worked by him on the first working day on which work was available to him following the holiday.

ANNUAL HOLIDAYS

Paragraph 19

(1) In addition to the customary holidays provided in paragraphs 16 and 17, an employer shall, before the 30th day of September, 1951, and in each succeeding year between the 1st day of April and the 30th day of September, allow a holiday (hereinafter referred to as an "annual holiday") to every worker to whom this Schedule applies who was employed or engaged to be employed by him during the twelve months immediately preceding the commencement of the holiday season (hereinafter referred to as the "qualifying period") for any of the periods of employment specified below, and the duration of the annual holiday shall be related to the period of the worker's employment as follows:—

Period of employment	Duration of annual holiday
At least 48 weeks	6 days
„ 40 „	5 „
„ 32 „	4 „
„ 24 „	3 „
„ 16 „	2 „
„ 8 „	1 day

Provided that—

(i) the number of days of annual holiday to which a worker is entitled in any holiday season shall not exceed the number constituting that worker's normal working week ;

(ii) a worker shall not be entitled to be allowed an annual holiday during the holiday season ending on the 30th day of September, 1951, if he has been duly allowed an annual holiday by the employer under the provisions of Order I.S.C. (6) (as amended) between the first day of April, 1951, and the date on which the provisions of this Schedule become effective.

(2) For the purposes of this Part of this Schedule the expression "holiday season" means in relation to an annual holiday during the year 1951 the period commencing on the 1st day of April, 1951, and ending on the 30th day of September, 1951, and in relation to each subsequent year, the period commencing on the 1st day of April and ending on the 30th day of September in that year.

Paragraph 20

For the purpose of calculating any period of employment referred to in paragraph 19, 22 or 26 entitling the worker to an annual holiday or to any accrued holiday remuneration, a worker shall be treated as having been employed :—

(1) For a week in respect of any week in which he has performed some work for the employer which would entitle him to statutory minimum remuneration ;

(2) When absent from work in any of the following circumstances :—

(a) on customary holidays, and annual holidays as provided in this Part of this Schedule ;

(b) during proved sickness or accident up to and not exceeding a maximum of eight weeks in the aggregate during any such period as aforesaid ;

(c) by leave of the employer.

Paragraph 21

Annual holidays shall be allowed on consecutive days and days of holiday shall be treated as consecutive notwithstanding that a Sunday (or in the case of a shift-worker or split duty worker the normal day of rest), or a holiday allowed under the provisions of paragraph 16 or 17 intervenes.

Paragraph 22

Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 19, an employer may make application to the Wages Board to vary the holiday season to meet special circumstances, either by providing for its commencement earlier than 1st April or extending its duration beyond 30th September provided that any such application is made, in the former case not less than 6 weeks before the operative date, and in the latter case before the 1st July.

Where the holiday season has been varied under this provision so as to commence earlier than 1st April the qualifying period in respect of the worker or workers concerned shall be the twelve months immediately preceding the commencement of the holiday season as varied.

Paragraph 23

An employer shall give to a worker reasonable notice of the commencing date and duration of his annual holiday and such notice may be given individually to a worker or by the posting of a notice in the place where the worker is employed.

REMUNERATION FOR ANNUAL HOLIDAYS

Paragraph 24

Holiday remuneration for annual holidays shall be paid on the last pay day preceding the holiday as follows:—

For each week (but not exceeding 48) in respect of which under the provisions of paragraph 20 the worker is treated as having been employed, one forty-eighth of the amount he would receive from his employer had he worked his normal working hours for the week and been paid at the appropriate statutory minimum remuneration (as defined in paragraph 30) with—

(1) in the case of a worker other than a worker to whom the provisions of sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph apply AN ADDITION OF 2s. 0d. for each day of holiday or

(2) in the case of a worker who is employed in the circumstance that he is provided by his employer with full board and lodging or either full board or lodging AN ADDITION OF—

(a) 4s. 2d. if the worker is 17 years of age or over, or

(b) 3s. 1d. if the worker is under 17 years of age,

for each full day during the week in which the holiday is taken that the worker is absent with the concurrence of his employer from his place of lodging or employment.

Paragraph 25

Where a worker ceases to be employed by an employer after the provisions of this Schedule become effective the employer shall immediately, on the termination of the employment, pay to the worker accrued holiday remuneration in accordance with the provisions of the following paragraph.

Paragraph 26

(1) Subject to the provisions of this paragraph accrued holiday remuneration shall be payable to a worker in respect of his employment with the employer in the twelve months commencing on the 1st day of April, 1950, and thereafter in each successive period of twelve months commencing on the 1st day of April, as follows:—

For each week (but not exceeding 48) in respect of which under the provisions of paragraph 20 the worker is treated as having been employed, one forty-eighth of the amount he would receive from his employer had he worked his normal working hours for the week and been paid at the appropriate statutory minimum remuneration (as defined in paragraph 30) with—

(a) in the case of a worker other than a worker to whom the provisions of (b) of this sub-paragraph apply AN ADDITION OF 2s. 0d. or

(b) in the case of a worker who is employed in the circumstance that he is provided by his employer with full board and lodging or either full board or lodging AN ADDITION OF—

(i) 4s. 2d. if the worker is 17 years of age or over. or

(ii) 3s. 1d. if the worker is under 17 years ot age,

for each day of annual holiday for which he had qualified at the date or termination of employment or for which he would have qualified if by virtue of such employment he could have taken an annual holiday at the date of termination of employment.

(2) Accrued holiday remuneration is not payable in respect of any period of employment for which the worker has been allowed or become entitled to be allowed an annual holiday under this Schedule or the Schedule to Order I.S.C. (6) (as amended).

(3) The amount of any accrued holiday remuneration payable on the termination of the worker's employment shall be reduced by the amount of any previous payment of accrued holiday remuneration made by the employer to the worker under the provisions of this Schedule or of the Schedule to Order I.S.C. (6) (as amended) so far as it is attributable to the period for which the accrued holiday remuneration is payable.

Paragraph 27

Where any accrued holiday remuneration has been paid by the employer to the worker under paragraphs 25 and 26 in respect of employment in the twelve months preceding the holiday season current when an annual holiday is allowed, the amount to be paid in respect of the period of such holiday is the appropriate amount payable under paragraph 24 less the accrued holiday remuneration paid as aforesaid.

PART III

DEFINITIONS

Paragraph 28

In this Schedule the expressions time-and-a-quarter, time-and-a-half and double time mean in the case of any worker whether employed as a day worker, a night worker, a shift worker or a split duty worker, respectively, one and a quarter times, one and a half times and twice the hourly rate obtained by dividing by 47 the minimum weekly remuneration specified in paragraph 1 for the corresponding description of worker in the same area as if he were employed in the circumstances specified in sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 6.

Paragraph 29

In this Schedule the following expressions have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them, that is to say:—

PART IV

WORKERS TO WHOM THE SCHEDULE APPLIES

Paragraph 31

The provisions of this Schedule apply to the following workers, that is to say:—

Workers employed in Great Britain by the person or body of persons carrying on an industrial or staff canteen undertaking who are so employed in the said undertaking, and who are engaged on any of the following work, that is to say:—

(a) the preparation of food or drink;

(b) the service of food or drink;

(c) work incidental to such preparation or service;

(d) any work performed on or about premises where food or drink is prepared or served, including work in connection with any service or amenity provided at such premises;

(e) transport work;

(f) work performed at any office, depot, store or similar place;

but excluding transport workers and workers at any office, depot, store or similar place who are employed by the person or body of persons carrying on the undertaking mainly on work not in connection with the undertaking.

DEFINITION OF INDUSTRIAL OR STAFF CANTEEN UNDERTAKING

An industrial or staff canteen undertaking consists of any undertaking or any part of an undertaking which is wholly or mainly engaged in supplying food or drink for immediate consumption and activities incidental or ancillary thereto, and which is carried on for the use of employed persons in connection with their employment:—

(a) by their employer or employers; or

(b) by the employed persons themselves; or

(c) by the employed persons and their employer or employers jointly; or

(d) by any other person or body of persons in pursuance of an arrangement or arrangements with the employer or employers of the employed persons, or with the employed persons themselves, or with the employed persons and their employer or employers jointly;

(e) by a dock authority or by any person or body of persons under an arrangement with a dock authority;

but excluding any such undertaking carried on:—

(1) directly by the Crown; or

(2) by an employer or by workers and their employer jointly, wholly or mainly for the use of workers employed by the employer:—

(i) in the business of supplying food or drink for immediate consumption by the general public; or

(ii) at or in connection with a shop, if the shop includes a restaurant, café or similar place where meals are served to the general public: or

(iii) at or in connection with an hotel, boarding house, hostel or other similar establishment; or

(iv) at or in connection with any hospital, nursing home or other similar establishment; or

(v) at or in connection with any university, college, school or other similar establishment.

For the purpose of this definition "dock authority" means any person or body of persons whether incorporated or not who are authorised to construct or are owners or lessees of any dock authorised by or under any Act, and "dock" includes a wharf or quay.

Paragraph 32

Nothing in this Schedule shall be construed as authorising the making of any deduction or the giving of any remuneration in any manner which is illegal by virtue of the Truck Acts, 1831 to 1940, or of any other enactment.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)
