1961 No. 252

WAGES COUNCILS

The Wages Regulation (Retail Bespoke Tailoring) (England and Wales) Order, 1961

Made - - - - 13*th February*, 1961

Coming into Operation 3*rd March*, 1961

Whereas the Minister of Labour (hereafter in this Order referred to as "the Minister") has received from the Retail Bespoke Tailoring Wages Council (England and Wales) (hereafter in this Order referred to as "the Wages Council") the wages regulation proposals set out in the Schedule hereto;

Now, therefore, the Minister, by virtue of the powers conferred on him by section 11 of the Wages Councils Act, 1959(a), and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following Order:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Wages Regulation (Retail Bespoke Tailoring) (England and Wales) Order, 1961.

2.—(1) In this Order the expression "the specified date" means the 3rd day of March, 1961, provided that where, as respects any worker who is paid wages at intervals not exceeding seven days, that date does not correspond with the beginning of the period for which the wages are paid, the expression "the specified date" means, as respects that worker, the beginning of the next such period following that date.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889(b), shall apply to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament and as if this Order and the Order hereby revoked were Acts of Parliament.

3. The wages regulation proposals set out in the Schedule hereto shall have effect as from the specified date and as from that date the Wages Regulation (Retail Bespoke Tailoring) (England and Wales) Order, 1960(c), shall cease to have effect.

Dated this 13th day of February, 1961.

John Hare,
Minister of Labour.

SCHEDULE

The following minimum remuneration shall be substituted for the statutory minimum remuneration fixed by the Wages Regulation (Retail Bespoke Tailoring) (England and Wales) Order, 1960 (Order R.B. (54)).

STATUTORY MINIMUM REMUNERATION

PART I

GENERAL

1.—(1) The minimum remuneration payable to a worker to whom this Schedule applies for all work except work to which a minimum overtime rate applies under Part VI is:—

(a) in the case of a time worker, the hourly general minimum time rate applicable to the worker under the provisions of this Schedule;

(b) in the case of a worker employed on piece work,

(i) where a general minimum piece rate (commonly referred to as a "log rate") applies under Part V of this Schedule, that rate;

(ii) where no general minimum piece rate applies, piece rates each of which would yield, in the circumstances of the case, to an ordinary worker (that is to say, a worker of ordinary skill and efficiency of the class in question) at least the same amount of money as the piece work basis time rate applicable to the worker or, where no piece work basis time rate is applicable, at least the same amount of money as the hourly general minimum time rate which would be applicable to the worker if he were a time worker.

(2) In this Schedule, in relation to a worker to whom a weekly general minimum time rate applies, the expression hourly general minimum time rate means the weekly general minimum time rate applicable to the worker divided by 42.

APPLICABILITY OF STATUTORY MINIMUM REMUNERATION

2.—(1) Subject to the provisions of sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph, this Schedule applies to workers in relation to whom the Retail Bespoke Tailoring Wages Council (England and Wales) operates, that is to say, workers employed in England and Wales in any of the branches of work in the retail bespoke tailoring trade as specified in the Schedule to the Trade Boards (Retail Bespoke Tailoring Trade, England and Wales) (Constitution and Proceedings) Regulations, 1924(a), which are set out below, that is to say:—

Those branches of men's, women's, boys' and girls' bespoke tailoring in which the tailor supplies the garment direct to the individual wearer and employs the worker direct.

A worker shall be deemed to be employed by the tailor direct, if employed by another worker in the employ of the tailor, to whom a minimum rate of wages fixed under the Wages Councils Act, 1959 is applicable; or if employed by a sub-contractor engaged in cutting, making or finishing garments exclusively for the tailor in the tailor's shop or in a building of which the shop forms part or to which the shop is attached;

including:—

(a) (i) The altering, repairing, renovating, or re-making of men's, women's, boys' or girls' tailored garments where carried out for the individual wearer by a tailor who employs the worker direct as defined above;

(a) S.R. & O. 1924/835 (1924, p. 1769).

(ii) The cleaning of such garments where carried on in association with or in conjunction with the repairing, renovating or re-making of the garments;

(b) The lining with fur of the above-mentioned garments where carried out in association with or in conjunction with the making of such garments;

(c) All processes of embroidery or decorative needlework where carried out in association with or in conjunction with the above-mentioned branches of tailoring;

(d) The packing and all other operations incidental to or appertaining to any of the above-mentioned branches of tailoring;

but excluding:—

(a) All or any of the above-mentioned operations where carried on in a factory where garments are made up for three or more retail establishments;

(b) The making of head-gear.

(2) This Schedule does not apply to workers employed as cutters, trimmers or packers.

PART IV

RECKONING OF EXPERIENCE

PREVIOUS INSTRUCTION IN AN APPROVED TECHNICAL CLASS

8. Where any worker has, after attaining the age of 15 years and prior to his employment on work to which this Schedule applies, received instruction in tailoring processes in a technical class at any school or other institution and such instruction has been approved by the Wages Council, for the purpose of reckoning the period of his apprenticeship, learnership or other employment in the trade each complete one hundred hours of such instruction in tailoring processes shall be treated as four weeks of apprenticeship, learnership or other employment in the trade: Provided that the period to be so treated as employment in the trade shall not exceed the total number of weeks during which the worker attended the technical class.

Previous Experience in the Tailoring Trade

9. Where any worker has at any time been employed as a worker in relation to whom there operated one or more of the following Wages Councils, that is to say, the Retail Bespoke Tailoring Wages Council (England and Wales), the Retail Bespoke Tailoring Wages Council (Scotland), the Ready-made and Wholesale Bespoke Tailoring Wages Council (Great Britain) and the Wholesale Mantle and Costume Wages Council (Great Britain), each such period of employment shall, for the purpose of reckoning the period of the worker's learnership or other employment (not being apprenticeship) in the trade, be treated as though it were an equal period of learnership or other employment in the trade.

Experience under the Government Vocational Training Scheme

10. Where any worker has completed the full period of training in retail bespoke tailoring in respect of which training allowances are payable under the Government Vocational Training Scheme, such period of training shall, for the purpose of reckoning the period of the worker's employment in the trade, be treated as though it were a period of five years' employment therein.

Part V

GENERAL MINIMUM PIECE RATES

Log Rates

11. The general minimum piece rates (commonly referred to as "log rates") applicable to a male worker specified in paragraph 12 when employed on piece work are the rates obtained by applying to the times set out in the Piece Work Time Statement contained in Schedule XIII to the Minister's Confirming Order R.B. (E. & W.) 1, dated 4th July, 1927 (hereinafter referred to as the "Piece Work Time Statement") the appropriate time rate per log hour set out in paragraph 13.

Application of Log Rates

12. Paragraph 11 applies to any male journeyman tailor who works either alone or with the assistance of not more than one apprentice or learner (whether or not machining as specified in the Piece Work Time Statement is provided by the employer) on any of the following work, that is to say:—

(a) the making of coats (including overcoats, jackets, and similar garments) of any of the classes specified in the Piece Work Time Statement where at least three of the following operations are performed:—

Sleeves put in by hand
Shoulder seams sewn by hand
Collar padded by hand (whether or not the collar stand is machined)
Collar put on by hand
Pockets tacked by hand
Edges stitched by hand

(b) the making of vests of any of the classes specified in the Piece Work Time Statement (other than under-vests) where at least two of the following operations are performed:—

Cuts in foreparts
Pockets tacked by hand
Forepart linings felled by hand
Edges stitched by hand

(c) the making of trousers, breeches and other leg garments (other than gaiters and leggings) of any of the classes specified in the Piece Work Time Statement where at least two of the following operations are performed:—

Cuts in waist
Seat seams sewn by hand
Fly put in by hand
Part leg seams sewn by hand
Pockets put in by hand

(d) the making of any of the other garments (including under-vests, gaiters and leggings) specified in the Piece Work Time Statement;

(e) any alteration or repair work performed on any of the garments specified in the foregoing sub-paragraphs.

Time Rates Per Log Hour

13. The time rates per log hour referred to in paragraph 11 applicable to workers employed in Areas A and B respectively are as follows:—

	Area A per hour s. d.	Area B per hour s. d.
(a) in the case of workers employed on any of the following garments which are also specified in the Piece Work Time Statement, that is to say:—
(i) military dress uniforms (excluding khaki)... (ii) naval frock and dress uniforms ... ... (iii) hunt coats and hunt riding breeches ... (iv) frock and dress coats ... ... (v) court and diplomatic garments ... ... (vi) morning coats (without cross pockets) made from materials other than tweeds or cheviots, but excluding morning coats to be worn by schoolboys attending a school where such a coat is to be worn in accordance with the regulations of the school	2 10	2 9
(b) in the case of any other worker	2 9½	2 8½

Part VI

OVERTIME AND WAITING TIME

NORMAL NUMBER OF HOURS

14. Minimum overtime rates set out in paragraph 15 are payable to any worker as follows:—

(1) in any week, for all time worked in excess of	42 hours
(2) on any day other than a Saturday, Sunday or a customary holiday, for all time worked in excess of	7¾ hours
Provided that where the worker normally attends on five days only in the week, minimum overtime rates shall apply to all time worked in excess of the hours following:—
where the normal working hours exceed 8½ ... or	9 hours
where the normal working hours are not more than 8½ hours	8½ hours

(3) on a Saturday, not being a customary holiday—

(a) where the worker normally attends on six days in the week, for all time worked in excess of ... ... 4 hours

(b) where the worker normally attends on five days only in the week ... ... for all time worked

(4) on a Sunday or a customary holiday ... ... for all time worked

MINIMUM OVERTIME RATES

15.—(1) Minimum overtime rates are payable to any worker as follows:—

(a) on any day other than a Saturday, Sunday or customary holiday—

(i) for the first 2 hours of overtime worked Time-and-a-quarter

(ii) for the next 2 hours ... ... Time-and-a-half

(iii) thereafter ... ... Double time

(b) on a Saturday, not being a customary holiday—

(i) where the worker normally attends on six days in the week—for all time worked in excess of 4 hours ... Double time

(ii) where the worker normally attends on five days only in the week—for the first 2 hours worked ... ... Time-and-a-quarter for the next 2 hours ... ... Time-and-a-half thereafter ... ... Double time

(c) on a Sunday or a customary holiday—for all time worked ... ... Double time

(d) in any week, exclusive of any time in respect of which a minimum overtime rate is payable under the foregoing provisions of this sub-paragraph—for all time worked in excess of 42 hours ... Time-and-a-quarter

(2) Where it is the practice in a Jewish undertaking for the employer to require attendance of the worker on Sunday and not on Saturday (except where such attendance on Sunday is unlawful) Saturday shall be treated as a Sunday, and, subject to the provisions of sub-paragraph (3) of this paragraph, Sunday as a Saturday.

(3) Where the worker normally attends on six days in the week and an ordinary week-day is substituted for Saturday, or in a case where the provisions of sub-paragraph (2) of this paragraph apply, for Sunday, as the worker's weekly short day, for the purposes of this Part of this Schedule (except where such substitution is unlawful) that ordinary week-day shall be treated as a Saturday, and Saturday or Sunday, as the case may be, as an ordinary week-day.

16. In this Part of this Schedule—

(1) the expression "customary holiday" means

(a) Christmas Day (or, if Christmas Day falls on a Sunday, such week-day as may be appointed by national proclamation, or, if none is so appointed, the next following Tuesday), Boxing Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Whit Monday and August Bank Holiday; or

(b) in the case of each of the said days, a day substituted by the employer therefor, being a day recognised by local custom as a day of holiday in substitution for the said day:

(2) the expressions "time-and-a-quarter", "time-and-a-half" and "double time" mean, respectively,

(a) in the case of a time worker, one and a quarter times, one and a half times and twice the hourly general minimum time rate otherwise applicable to the worker;

(b) in the case where a general minimum piece rate is otherwise applicable to a worker,

(i) a time rate equal respectively to one quarter, one half and the whole of the piece work basis time rate otherwise applicable to the worker or, where no piece work basis time rate is otherwise applicable, of the hourly general minimum time rate which would be applicable to the worker if he were a time worker and a minimum overtime rate did not apply, and in addition thereto,

(ii) the said general minimum piece rate;

(c) in the case where a general minimum piece rate is not otherwise applicable to a worker employed on piece work,

(i) a time rate equal respectively to one quarter, one half, and the whole of the piece work basis time rate otherwise applicable to the worker or, where no piece work basis time rate is otherwise applicable, of the hourly general minimum time rate which would be applicable to the worker if he were a time worker and a minimum overtime rate did not apply, and in addition thereto,

(ii) the piece rates otherwise applicable to the worker under sub-paragraph (1) of paragraph 1.

WAITING TIME

17.—(1) A worker is entitled to payment of the minimum remuneration specified in this Schedule for all time during which he is present on the premises of his employer unless he is present thereon in any of the following circumstances:—

(a) without the employer's consent, express or implied;

(b) for some purpose unconnected with his work and other than that of waiting for work to be given to him to perform;

(c) by reason only of the fact that he is resident thereon;

(d) during normal meal times in a room or place in which no work is being done and he is not waiting for work to be given to him to perform.

(2) The minimum remuneration payable under sub-paragraph (1) of this paragraph to a piece worker when not engaged on piece work is that which would be applicable if he were a time worker.

PART VII

APPRENTICES AND LEARNERS

CONDITIONS AS TO RATES FOR APPRENTICES

18. The general minimum time rates specified in (a) of paragraphs 3 and 6 respectively apply only to an apprentice in whose case the conditions following are fulfilled:—

(a) the apprentice shall be employed for a period of five years under, and in accordance with, a written contract of apprenticeship which has been duly executed and which contains the following provisions, which the Wages Council considers necessary for the effective instruction of the apprentice, or provisions substantially to the same effect, and no provisions contrary thereto, namely,—

(i) the apprentice, of his own free will and with the consent of his guardian, binds himself to serve the employer as his apprentice in his trade of retail bespoke tailoring for a term of five years;

(ii) the employer shall keep the apprentice as his apprentice during the said term and to the best of his power, skill and knowledge shall instruct the apprentice, or cause him to be instructed by a fully qualified tailor or tailoress, in the making throughout of such one or more of the following garments, namely, coats, skirts, trousers, breeches, waistcoats or cassocks as shall be specified in the said contract of apprenticeship and in everything relative to the work of making and completing the same;

(iii) during the first three years of apprenticeship the employer shall not require the apprentice to work during any period for which a minimum overtime rate is payable under the provisions of Part VI of this Schedule; and

(iv) during the said term of apprenticeship the employer shall not put the apprentice on piece work;

(b) the apprentice shall be the holder of a certificate of registration of apprenticeship issued by or on behalf of the Wages Council, or shall have made application for such a certificate which has been duly acknowledged and is still under consideration:

Provided that the certification of the apprentice may be cancelled by the Wages Council if the other conditions of apprenticeship are not complied with.

PROSPECTIVE APPRENTICES

19. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this Schedule, where an employer employs a worker as a prospective apprentice for a probationary period not exceeding three months (or such extended period as is referred to at the end of this paragraph) and all the foregoing conditions of apprenticeship, other than those with regard to employment under a written contract of apprenticeship and certification by the Wages Council are fulfilled in the case of that worker, the minimum remuneration applicable to that worker during the said period shall be that applicable to an apprentice employed in accordance with the conditions specified in the preceding paragraph, and, in the event of the worker being continued thereafter at his employment as an apprentice, the said probationary period shall, for the purposes of this Schedule, be treated as part of the period of apprenticeship, whether or not it is included therein. Where, before the expiration of three months from the commencement of employment as a prospective apprentice as aforesaid, the Wages Council has received and acknowledged in writing written notification of such employment and of the intention of the employer and apprentice to enter into a written contract of apprenticeship the period of three months first referred to in this paragraph may be extended as the Wages Council may consider necessary for the drawing up and execution of the written contract.

DEFINITION OF A LEARNER

20. In this Schedule the expression "learner" means any worker, male or female, who,

(a) not being—

(i) an apprentice employed in accordance with the conditions specified in paragraph 18;

(ii) a worker who has completed the full period of training in retail bespoke tailoring in respect of which training allowances are payable under the Government Vocational Training Scheme;

(iii) a worker who has been employed for more than five years in the retail bespoke section of the tailoring trade, the ready-made and wholesale bespoke tailoring trade, and the wholesale mantle and costume trade, or in one or more of such trades; or

(iv) a worker who works in a room used for dwelling purposes unless he is in the employment of his parent or guardian;

(b) is employed by an employer who provides him with reasonable facilities for learning—

(i) the general trade of underpressing and pressing off,

(ii) the making throughout of either skirts or cassocks, or

(iii) three or more of the following operations in the making of coats (including overcoats and ladies' coats) or vests or trousers or breeches, and who, until at least three operations on any one garment have been taught, is not employed by the same employer for more than six months on any one operation:—

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order, which has effect from 3rd March, 1961, sets out the statutory minimum remuneration payable in substitution for that fixed by the Wages Regulation (Retail Bespoke Tailoring) (England and Wales) Order, 1960 (Order R.B. (54)), which is revoked.

New provisions are printed in italics.
