(e) Milk workers—Sunday work.—A milk worker (as defined in paragraph 34) shall be paid time-and-a-half for seven hours twenty minutes for any time worked or deemed to have been worked not exceeding seven hours twenty minutes on Sunday not being the worker's normal day of rest and, thereafter, in accordance with paragraph 13 (b).

Night Work

2. A worker whose hours of duty or any part thereof entail employment between 9 p.m. and 6 a.m. shall be paid the appropriate rates of wages specified in paragraph 1 or paragraph 7 with the addition of 8d. for each hour, or part of an hour, worked between 9 p.m. and 6 a.m. Where overtime is payable in respect of hours worked between 9 p.m. and 6 a.m., this additional payment remains payable but is not to be included for the purpose of calculating the overtime rate payable in respect of those hours.

Vehicles loaded or unloaded in higher graded places

3. Where a vehicle picks up or sets down a load at a point or points where the scales of wages payable are higher than that applicable to the locality in which the worker's home depot is situated, the worker employed thereon shall be paid for the whole journey at the highest rate of wages applicable to that class of vehicle at any of the points where he picks up or sets down, or if employed on long distance services, at the rate applicable thereto:

Provided that where a vehicle picks up or sets down in the London Area, the rate of wages applicable to a worker employed thereon whose home depot is in a grade 1 or 2 locality shall be the appropriate grade 1 rate or the rate appropriate to long distance services as the case may be.

The provisions of this paragraph shall not apply to foremen, removal packers and porters engaged in the Furniture Warehousing and Removing Industry.

Guaranteed Weekly Remuneration

4.—(1) This paragraph applies to a regular worker (as defined in paragraph 29) in respect of any week in which he has performed some road haulage work for the employer.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of the other paragraphs of this Schedule, where in respect of any such week the remuneration payable to the worker for time worked or deemed to have been worked (excluding overtime, and special payments as defined in sub-paragraph (4) of this paragraph) is less than the guaranteed weekly remuneration provided under this paragraph, the minimum remuneration payable to that worker for that week shall, subject to the provisions of this paragraph, be the guaranteed weekly remuneration, with the addition of any amount which may be payable in respect of overtime and by way of special payments.

(3) The guaranteed weekly remuneration is 44 hours' pay calculated as follows:—

(a) for the hours worked (including hours deemed to have been worked but excluding overtime and special payments) at the rate or rates appropriate to such work;

(b) for the remaining hours (except hours during which the worker was suspended from work following the expiry of any notice given to him in the manner and circumstances stated in (i) to (iii) below and except hours during which he was absent from work without leave of the employer or on account of sickness) at the time rate normally applicable to him.

(i) Flood, snow, ice or other climatic conditions of such a nature as to preclude the operation of the vehicle, provided that not less than 24 hours' notice of the suspension of work shall be given individually to the worker and by the posting of a notice in the depot or other mutually convenient place;

(ii) where the employer is unable to carry on his business by reason of a strike or lock-out, provided that not less than 4 days' notice of such inability is given to the worker;

(iii) where the employer is unable to operate a vehicle or vehicles owing to the restriction of his fuel supply under any enactment or regulation made thereunder, provided that not less than 24 hours' notice of such inability is given to the worker or workers concerned:

Provided that the foregoing notices shall not be given when the worker is away from his home depot, and the suspension shall not operate until the required notice has been given to the worker on his return to his home depot.

(4) For the purposes of sub-paragraphs (2) and (3) of this paragraph:—

(a) in addition to any time deemed to have been worked under the other provisions of this Schedule a worker shall be deemed to have worked on any day allowed to him as a customary holiday or an annual holiday the number of hours (excluding overtime) ordinarily worked by him on that day of the week; and (except in cases where time is deemed to have been worked pursuant to the provisions of sub-paragraph (c) of paragraph 16 or sub-paragraph (c) of paragraph 17 of this Schedule) a worker who is required to work on a day of customary holiday for less than the number of hours (excluding overtime) ordinarily worked by him on that day of the week shall be deemed to have worked the number of hours (excluding overtime) ordinarily worked by him on that day of the week.

(b) "Special payments" means any sum payable to the worker under the following provisions of this Schedule—

(i) Paragraph 2 (Additional payment for night work).

(ii) Paragraph 10 (Payment for telephoning for instructions while off duty).

(iii) Paragraph 11 (Subsistence allowance other than payments for hours during which the worker is deemed to be on duty).

(iv) Paragraph 16 (a) and 17 (a) (Sums payable under provisos (i), (ii) and (iii) of paragraph 16 (a) or under provisos (1), (2) and (3) of paragraph 17 (a) in respect of customary holidays occurring on the worker's weekly half holiday or, in the case of a five-day worker, on a Saturday, or in the case of a milk worker on the worker's normal day of rest).

5. The provisions of paragraph 4 shall not apply to a worker whose normal employment in the service of the employer substantially includes other work as well as road haulage work. Such a worker shall be paid in respect of the road haulage work at the appropriate rate for the time actually spent on such work.

A worker not normally a road haulage worker, but who occasionally performs road haulage work, shall be paid the rates of wages appropriate to a road haulage worker for the time actually spent on such work.

Computation of hours of work

6. The following provisions shall apply to regular workers to whom the guaranteed weekly remuneration provisions apply:—

(a) Regular workers other than milk workers—

(i) a five-day worker who works on any day other than Saturday or Sunday shall, subject to the provisions of paragraph 23 and the proviso to paragraph 35 (a) (ii) be deemed to have worked for 9 hours on any day Monday to Thursday and for 8 hours on Friday notwithstanding that he was employed for less than 9 or 8 hours respectively;

(ii) a six-day worker who works on any day other than Sunday shall, subject to the provisions of paragraph 23, be deemed to have worked for 8 hours on any day Monday to Friday and for 4 hours on Saturday notwithstanding that he was employed for less than 8 or 4 hours respectively.

(b) Milk workers—

A milk worker who works on any day shall be deemed to have worked for seven hours twenty minutes notwithstanding that he was employed for less than seven hours twenty minutes:

Provided that a worker who is instructed to report for duty and presents himself for duty but does not commence work shall be deemed to have commenced work.

Workers other than regular workers—Guaranteed day for, and remuneration

7. Subject to the provisions relating to customary holidays, a worker other than a regular worker shall be paid not less than the wages due for 8 hours in respect of work done, or deemed to have been done, by him on any day Monday to Friday, and not less than the wages due for 4 hours in respect of work done, or deemed to have been done, by him on Saturday:

Provided that—

(a) where a spell of duty commences before midnight and continues thereafter, a worker shall not be entitled, by that fact alone, to two guaranteed payments in respect of that spell of duty,

(b) a worker who is engaged for a day of not less than 8 hours on any day Monday to Friday, or for not less than 4 hours on Saturday, for work other than road haulage work, but who may perform some road haulage work, shall be paid for the time actually spent on road haulage work at the hourly rate or rates, calculated in accordance with the provisions of paragraph 8, applicable to a worker other than a regular worker, and

(c) a worker who is instructed to report for duty, and presents himself for duty but does not commence work, shall be deemed to have commenced work.

Subject to the provisions relating to overtime, a worker other than a regular worker shall, when the number of hours worked or payable under the guarantee provided in this paragraph, is 8 on any day Monday to Friday, or 4 on Saturday, be paid the wages applicable to a regular worker for 8 hours or 4 hours as the case may be, plus 1s.

In all other circumstances, he shall be paid at an hourly rate, which is 1½d. per hour above the hourly rate applicable to a regular worker.

The provisions of this paragraph are subject to the provisions of paragraph 23.

Hourly rate

8. For the purpose of calculating the hourly rates of regular workers, the rates of wages specified in paragraph 1 shall be divided by 44.

The hourly rate of a worker other than a regular worker shall be that applicable to a regular worker, plus 1½d.

Travelling

9. When a worker is required to travel in, or on, or to accompany a vehicle for the purpose of doing road haulage work he shall, in determining the wages payable, be deemed to be engaged on the road haulage work usually performed by him.

Telephoning for instructions while off duty

10.—(a) If a worker during the period between two spells of duty is required to telephone for instructions he shall be paid the wages due for one hour: Provided that this provision shall not apply when the telephone call is made immediately following a spell of duty.

(b) On each subsequent occasion, during the same period between two spells of duty, on which the worker is required to telephone for instructions he shall be paid the wages due for four hours: Provided that if when telephoning on any such occasion the worker is instructed to commence work within one hour of so telephoning, he shall be paid for one hour instead of the said four hours.

(c) The payments to be made under sub-paragraphs (a) and (b) of this paragraph shall be at the rate normally applicable to the worker and shall be in addition to the weekly wages otherwise due to him.

Subsistence

11.—(a) When a worker's period of rest occurs away from his home depot he shall be paid 16s. 0d. in respect of each period of rest not exceeding 15 hours' continuous duration. When any such period of rest exceeds 15 hours the worker shall be deemed to be on duty and shall be entitled to be paid (in addition to the 16s. 0d.) at the time rate which would be payable if he were actually at work for the period he is resting in excess of 15 hours but not in excess of 24 hours or 23 hours according to whether he is a five- or six-day worker. If the period of rest exceeds 24 or 23 hours, as the case may be, these arrangements will continue to apply until the worker resumes actual duty.

(b) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph the following provisions shall apply in the case of a worker who is temporarily transferred away from his normal home depot and stationed in another locality (beyond reasonable daily travelling distance from his home) for more than one week:—

(i) after payment in respect of the first week in accordance with the provisions of sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph a worker shall, in respect of the second and subsequent weeks, be paid a weekly subsistence allowance of 75s. 3d. (i.e., 10s. 9d. per day);

(ii) if a worker already on temporary transfer is temporarily transferred to another new station beyond reasonable daily travelling distance from his home he shall (after payment in respect of the first week at such other new station in accordance with sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph) be paid, in respect of the second and subsequent weeks, a weekly subsistence allowance of 75s. 3d. (i.e., 10s. 9d. per day);

(iii) for any period of rest occurring away from a new station and from his home, he shall be paid in accordance with the provisions of sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph and, in respect of any day for which payment is made to the worker under the provisions of that sub-paragraph, the subsistence allowances of 10s. 9d. per day (specified in (i) and (ii) above) shall be reduced to 7s. 6d. per day.

worked on Sunday in excess of the hours actually worked. If the Sunday duty is less than 3 hours he shall be deemed to have worked 3 hours on Sunday: Provided also that a worker commencing work on Saturday who finishes work between midnight and 1 a.m. on Sunday shall be deemed to have worked one hour on Sunday.

(e) All regular workers—

Time worked in any week in excess of 44 hours.

(f) (i) In determining the time to be regarded as overtime, time worked shall include time deemed to have been worked under the provisions of paragraphs 6, 11 and 12 (d).

Customary holidays—England and Wales

16.—(a) An employer in England and Wales shall, except as provided below, allow the following days as holidays to regular workers to whom paragraph 1 applies and who were in his employment on the day immediately prior to the day of holiday:—Christmas Day (or, if Christmas Day falls on a Sunday, such weekday as may be prescribed by national proclamation, or the next following Tuesday), Boxing Day, Good Friday, Easter Monday, Whit Monday, August Bank Holiday and all nationally proclaimed holidays. Where in any place it is not the custom or practice to observe such days as holidays, other days (not fewer in number) may, by agreement between the employer and the worker, be substituted for the above-mentioned days. Each such day (i.e., one of the days specified above or a day substituted therefor—hereafter in this paragraph referred to as a "customary holiday") taken as a holiday shall be paid for on the basis of the wages due for the number of hours (excluding overtime) ordinarily worked by the worker on that day of the week at the time rate normally applicable to the worker:

Provided that—

(i) in addition to the foregoing, in the case of a six-day worker, other than a milk worker, where the customary holiday falls on the worker's weekly half holiday he shall be paid in respect of that day a sum equivalent to the wages due for 4 hours' work at the rate normally applicable to him;

(ii) in the case of a five-day worker, where the customary holiday falls on a Saturday he shall be paid in respect of that day a sum equivalent to the wages due for 8 hours' work at the rate normally applicable to him;

(iii) in the case of a milk worker, where the customary holiday falls on the worker's normal day of rest he shall be paid in respect of that day a sum equivalent to the wages due for 8 hours' work at the rate normally applicable to him.

Where by reason of the necessity of maintaining essential services the allowing of a customary holiday is rendered impracticable, a worker may be required to work on a day specified above as a day of customary holiday (except where such requirement would be illegal in relation to women and young persons) and if so required shall be paid for all time worked thereon at double the rate otherwise appropriate to such work, and notwithstanding that he may work for less than the number of hours (excluding overtime) ordinarily worked by him on that day of the week he shall, except as specified in sub-paragraph (c) of this paragraph, be paid not less than the wages due for twice the number of hours (excluding overtime) ordinarily worked by him on that day of the week:

Provided that a milk worker shall receive not less than the wages due for 16 hours' work at the rate normally applicable to him.

(b) A worker, other than a regular worker, who is employed on a customary holiday shall be paid for such work at double the rate otherwise appropriate thereto, and, notwithstanding that he may work for less than 8 hours on any such day, he shall, except as specified in sub-paragraph (c) of this paragraph, be paid not less than twice the amount due, under the provisions of paragraph 7, for a guaranteed day of 8 hours.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-paragraphs (a) and (b) of this paragraph, a worker whether a regular worker or otherwise, who is employed on a customary holiday for not more than three hours during a spell of duty commencing on the day before that holiday and finishing on the holiday or commencing on the holiday and finishing on the following day and whose hours of employment on the holiday are up to one hour, over one hour but not over two hours, or over two hours but not over three hours, shall be paid for one hour or two hours or three hours as the case may be at double the rate appropriate to the work; and, for the purpose of paragraph 4, a regular worker shall be deemed to have worked for two hours, four hours or six hours as the case may be. In addition, a regular worker shall be paid in respect of the customary holiday on the basis of the remuneration due for a day of customary holiday under the provisions of sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph.

Customary holidays—Scotland

17.—(a) An employer in Scotland shall, except as provided below, allow the following days as holidays to regular workers to whom paragraph 1 applies and who were in his employment on the day immediately prior to the day of holiday:—

(i) New Year's day (or the following day if New Year's day falls on a Sunday), the local Spring Holiday, the local Autumn Holiday, and all nationally proclaimed holidays.

(ii) Three other days in the course of a calendar year to be fixed by the employer and notified to the workers not less than 21 days before the holiday.

(iii) Where in any place it is not the custom or practice to observe the days mentioned in (i) above as holidays, other days (not fewer in number) may, by agreement between the employer and the worker, be substituted for the above-mentioned days.

Each such day of holiday (i.e., one of the days specified above or a day substituted therefor—hereafter in this paragraph referred to as a "customary holiday") shall be paid for on the basis of the wages due for the number of hours (excluding overtime) ordinarily worked by the worker on that day of the week at the time rate normally applicable to the worker:

Provided that—

(1) in addition to the foregoing, in the case of a six-day worker other than a milk worker, where the customary holiday falls on the worker's weekly half holiday he shall be paid in respect of that day a sum equivalent to the wages due for 4 hours' work at the rate normally applicable to him;

(2) in the case of a five-day worker, where the customary holiday falls on a Saturday he shall be paid in respect of that day a sum equivalent to the wages due for 8 hours' work at the rate normally applicable to him;

(3) in the case of a milk worker, where the customary holiday falls on the worker's normal day of rest he shall be paid in respect of that day a sum equivalent to the wages due for 8 hours' work at the rate normally applicable to him.

Where by reason of the necessity of maintaining essential services the allowing of the customary holiday is rendered impracticable, a worker may be required to commence work on a day mentioned in (i) above as a day of customary holiday (except where such a requirement would be illegal in relation to women and young persons) and if so required shall be paid for all time worked thereon at double the rate otherwise appropriate to such work and notwithstanding that he may work for less than the number of hours (excluding overtime) ordinarily worked by him on that day of the week he shall, except as specified in sub-paragraph (c) of this paragraph, be paid not less than the wages due for twice the number of hours (excluding overtime) ordinarily worked by him on that day of the week:

Provided that a milk worker shall receive not less than the wages due for 16 hours' work at the rate normally applicable to him.

A worker may be required to commence work on any of the days mentioned in (ii) above, provided that if so required he shall be paid at the rate appropriate to such work and notwithstanding that he may work for less than the number of hours (excluding overtime) ordinarily worked by him on that day of the week a worker other than a milk worker shall be paid not less than the wages due for the number of hours (excluding overtime) ordinarily worked by him on that day of the week, and a milk worker shall be paid not less than the wages due for 8 hours' work. The worker shall also be allowed another day of holiday in lieu.

(b) A worker other than a regular worker who is employed on any of the days mentioned in (i) of sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph shall be paid for such work at double the rate otherwise appropriate thereto and, notwithstanding that he may work for less than 8 hours on any such day, he shall, except as specified in sub-paragraph (c) of this paragraph, be paid not less than twice the amount due, under the provisions of paragraph 7, for a guaranteed day of 8 hours.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-paragraphs (a) and (b) of this paragraph, the following provisions shall apply to a worker who is employed on any customary holiday indicated below for not more than 3 hours during a spell of duty commencing on the day before the holiday and finishing on the holiday or commencing on the holiday and finishing on the following day:—

(i) a regular worker employed on any customary holiday mentioned in (i) or (iii) of sub-paragraph (a) above shall in addition to the payments provided in sub-paragraph (iii) below receive payment in respect of the holiday on the basis of the wages due for a day of customary holiday under the provisions of sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph;

(ii) a regular worker employed on any customary holiday mentioned in (ii) of sub-paragraph (a) above shall be paid in accordance with sub-paragraph (iii) below and shall also be allowed another day of holiday in lieu for which he shall receive payment on the basis of the wages due for a day of customary holiday under the provisions of sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph;

(iii) a worker, whether a regular worker or otherwise, whose hours entail a spell of duty commencing on the day before any customary holiday mentioned in (i), (ii) or (iii) of sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph and finishing on any such holiday or commencing on any such holiday and finishing on the following day and whose hours of employment on the customary holiday are up to 1 hour, over 1 hour but not over 2 hours, or over 2 hours but not over 3 hours, shall be paid for 1 hour or 2 hours or 3 hours as the case may be at double the rate appropriate to the work; and, for the purpose of paragraph 4, a regular worker shall be deemed to have worked for 2 hours, 4 hours or 6 hours as the case may be.

(vi) absence for not more than 7 days during the qualifying period for reasons other than those specified in (i) to (v) above.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-paragraphs (a) and (b) of this paragraph, a worker who has been absent for more than 7 days during the qualifying period for reasons other than those specified in (i) to (v) of sub-paragraph (b) shall not be entitled to any annual holiday in respect of such period.

(d) In this Schedule the expression "holiday season" means in relation to an annual holiday during the year 1959, the period commencing on the 1st May, 1959, and ending on the 15th October, 1959, and in relation to each subsequent year, the period commencing on the 1st May and ending on the 15th October in that year.

(e) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-paragraphs (a) and (d) of this paragraph, where before the 1st October in any holiday season, at the written request of a worker his employer has agreed in writing that the worker shall be allowed after the end of the holiday season and before the 1st May in the following year, the annual holiday, or any part thereof, for which he has qualified under this paragraph, any such days of annual holiday may, subject to the provisions of paragraph 22, be allowed in accordance with the agreement and if so allowed shall be treated for the purposes of this Schedule as having been allowed during the holiday season.

(f) The duration of a worker's annual holiday during the holiday season ending on the 15th October, 1959, shall be reduced by any days of annual holiday duly allowed to him by the employer under the provisions of Order R.H. (62), between the 1st May, 1959, and the date on which this Schedule becomes effective.

19.—(a) In respect of annual holidays allowed under paragraph 18, holiday remuneration shall be paid as follows:—

20. Where any accrued holiday remuneration has been paid by the employer to the worker under paragraph 21 (a) in respect of any period of employment in the qualifying period preceding the holiday season current when the annual holiday is allowed, the amount to be paid in respect of the period of such holiday is the appropriate amount payable under paragraph 19 less the accrued holiday remuneration previously paid as aforesaid.

21.—(a) Where a worker ceases to be employed, accrued holiday remuneration shall, immediately on the termination of the employment, be paid to him by his employer in accordance with the next following sub-paragraph for periods of employment in respect of which he has not been allowed or has not become entitled to be allowed an annual holiday under this Schedule:

Provided that:—(i) where a worker ceases to be employed after being allowed a part of the annual holiday for which he has qualified by reason of his employment during any of the periods of twelve months referred to in the next following sub-paragraph but before being allowed the rest of the annual holiday for which he has so qualified, the accrued holiday remuneration payable to him in respect of his employment during the said period of twelve months shall be reduced by the amount of holiday remuneration received by him in respect of the part of the annual holiday he has been allowed;

(ii) the amount of any accrued holiday remuneration payable in respect of any period of employment shall be reduced by the amount of any previous payment of accrued holiday remuneration in respect of that period made by the employer to the worker under the provisions of this Schedule or of Order R.H. (62).

(b) For the purpose of sub-paragraph (a) of this paragraph, during the period of 12 months commencing on 1st May, 1958, and thereafter during each successive period of twelve months commencing on 1st May, accrued holiday remuneration shall be payable as follows:—

(c) Accrued holiday remuneration shall not be payable to a worker in respect of a qualifying period during which he was absent for more than 7 days for reasons other than those specified in (i) to (v) of paragraph 18 (b).

22.—(a) Annual holidays under paragraph 18 shall be allowed on consecutive working days being days upon which the worker is normally called upon to work, and days of holiday shall be treated as consecutive notwithstanding that a Sunday or any of the holidays allowed under paragraph 16 or paragraph 17 intervenes: Provided that where the duration of an annual holiday for which a worker is qualified exceeds the period of his normal working week, the holiday may, at the written request of the worker and with the agreement of the employer, be allowed in two or three periods, one of which shall be not less than the period of his normal working week.

(b) An employer shall give to a worker reasonable notice of the commencing date or dates and of the duration of his annual holiday. Such notice may be given individually to a worker or by the posting of a notice in the worker's home depot.

Alternative weekly half holiday

23. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraphs 4, 6, 7, 12 and 35 where it is the established practice of any section of the industry to allow as the weekly half holiday a specific day other than Saturday, such other specific day may in the case of a six-day worker be substituted as the weekly half holiday for the purpose of such provisions. In any case in which such substitution is made the above-mentioned provisions shall apply in like manner as if in such provisions such specific half holiday were substituted for "Saturday" and "Saturday" for such specific half holiday: Provided that the half holiday substituted for Saturday shall not be a Sunday.

Meal times

24. The hours of work specified are, except for the purpose of paragraph 11, exclusive of meal times.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order, which has effect from 20th July, 1959, sets out the statutory minimum remuneration and the holidays to be allowed in substitution for the statutory minimum remuneration and holidays set out in the Wages Regulation (Road Haulage) Order, 1957 (Order R.H. 62)) as amended by the Wages Regulation (Road Haulage) (Amendment) Order, 1958 (Order R.H. (64)), which Orders are revoked.

New provisions are printed in italics.

1959 No. 1508

The Wages Regulation (Rope, Twine and Net) Order, 1959

Made - - - - 25th August, 1959
Coming into Operation 9th September, 1959

Whereas the Minister of Labour and National Service (hereafter in this Order referred to as "the Minister") has received from the Rope, Twine and Net Wages Council (Great Britain) the wages regulation proposals set out in the Schedule hereto;

Now, therefore, the Minister, by virtue of the powers conferred on him by section 10 of the Wages Councils Act, 1945(a), and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, hereby makes the following Order:—

1. This Order may be cited as the Wages Regulation (Rope, Twine and Net) Order, 1959.

2.—(1) In this Order the expression "the specified date" means the 9th day of September, 1959, provided that where, as respects any worker who is paid wages at intervals not exceeding seven days, that date does not correspond with the beginning of the period for which the wages are paid, the expression "the specified date" means, as respects that worker, the beginning of the next such period following that date.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889(b), shall apply to the interpretation of this Order as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament and as if this Order and the Order hereby revoked were Acts of Parliament.

3. The wages regulation proposals set out in the Schedule hereto shall have effect as from the specified date and as from that date the Wages Regulation (Rope, Twine and Net) Order, 1958(c), shall cease to have effect.

Signed by order of the Minister of Labour and National Service this 25th day of August, 1959.

Guildhaume Myrddin-Evans,
Deputy Secretary,
Ministry of Labour and National Service.
