EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations amend the Weights and Measures (Testing and Adjustment Fees) Regulations 1967.

Special fees are prescribed for the first retesting of price computing instruments for measuring fuel or lubricants after they have been adapted to compute prices in decimal currency. The new fees are £4 for instruments of the blending type and £2 for other instruments. The other fees listed represent no change.
