Election of new Trustees.

III. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Trustees, from Time to Time, at any of their Meetings (of which respective Meetings, and of the Purposes thereof, at least Ten Days previous Notice shall be given in manner directed by an Act passed in the Third Year of the Reign of His late Majesty King George the Fourth, intituled An Act to amend the general Laws now in being for regulating Turnpike Roads in that Part of Great Britain called England, with respect to Meetings for the Appointment of Trustees on Vacancies) to elect and appoint any Number of Persons, not exceeding Three in the whole, to be Trustees for the Purposes of this Act, in addition to the Trustees herein named; and such additional Trustees so elected and being duly qualified shall have the same Powers and Authorities for executing this Act as if they had been herein named.

IV. And

Meetings of Trustees.

IV. And be it further enacted, That the Trustees for executing this Act may hold their First Meeting at the Antelope Inn in the Parish of Upavon in the County of Wilts, or at some other convenient Place in the Neighbourhood of the said intended Roads, on the Fourth Wednesday next after the Commencement of this Act, or so soon afterwards as conveniently may be, between the Hours of Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon and Two of the Clock in the Afternoon, and shall and may then and from Time to Time afterwards adjourn to and meet at such Times and Places in the Neighbourhood of the said Roads as the said Trustees or the major Part of them present at such respective Meetings shall think proper and appoint.

Plan of Roads and Book of Reference to remain with Clerk of the Peace, and be open to Inspection.

V. And whereas a Plan, describing the said intended Roads, and the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments upon, in, over, or through which the same are intended to be carried, together with a Section, and also a Book of Reference thereto, containing the Names of the Owners or reputed Owners, Lessees or reputed Lessees, and the Occupiers of such Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments, have been deposited at the Office of the Clerk of the Peace for the County of Wilts; be it therefore enacted, That the said Plan, Section, and Book of Reference shall remain in the Custody of the said Clerk of the Peace, to the end that all Persons may, at all reasonable Times, have Liberty to inspect the same, and to take Copies thereof and Extracts therefrom, paying to the said Clerk the Sum of One Shilling for every such Inspection, and at the Rate of Sixpence for every One hundred Words of such Copies or Extracts; and the said Plan, Section, and Book of Reference, or any Copy thereof respectively, certified by the said Clerk of the Peace for the Time being to be a true Copy, shall be good Evidence in all Courts of Law and elsewhere; and the said Trustees in making such Roads shall not deviate more than One hundred Yards from the Lines described on the said Plan, without the Consent in Writing of the Party or Parties upon, in, over, or through whose Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments any such Deviation beyond the said Distance of One hundred Yards shall be made.

Houses, &c. not to be taken unless mentioned in the Schedule.

VI. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That the Powers and Authorities by this Act given for making the said Roads shall not authorize the said Trustees to pull down or take or use any Dwelling House or other Building, or to take or use any Curtilage, Orchard, Garden, Yard, Park, Paddock, Lawn, Shrubbery, Plantation, planted Walk or Avenue to any House, or any inclosed Ground planted and set apart as a Nursery for Trees, or any Part thereof respectively, without the Consent in Writing of the Owners or Proprietors thereof respectively, or other Persons interested therein, first had and obtained, except such as are set forth in the Schedule to this Act annexed.

Unintentional Errors remedied.

VII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Trustees to make the said Roads upon, in, or over any Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments through which such Roads are delineated on the said Plan, although such Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments, or any of them, or the Situation thereof respectively, or or the Names of the Owners, Lessees, or Occupiers thereof respectively, may happen to be omitted, mis-stated, or erroneously described on the said Map or Plan, or in the said Book of Reference; provided it shall appear to any Two or more Justices of the Peace for the County of Wilts (in case of Dispute about the some), and be certified by Writing under their Hands, that such Omission, Misstatement, or erroneous Description proceeded from Mistake.

Limiting Time for Purchase of Property.

VIII. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if the said Trustees shall not, within the Space of Three Years next after the passing of this Act, agree for, and cause to be valued and paid for, the Lands, Tenements, and Hereditaments which they are by this Act authorized to take, or so much thereof respectively as they deem necessary for the Purposes of this Act, then and from thenceforth the Powers granted by this Act, or by any other Act or Acts, in relation to the taking of Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments for the Purposes of Turnpike Roads, shall, so far as relates to the Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments herein-before mentioned, cease and be utterly void, unless with the Consent of the respective Owners of such Lands, Tenements, or Hereditaments.

The Freehold and Inheritance of Lands to remain and be vested in the Persons of whom they are purchased.

IX. And be it further enacted, That in case any Land shall, in pursuance of this Act, or the Acts for regulating Turnpike Roads in England, be purchased by the said Trustees for the Purposes of this Act, the Freehold and Inheritance of and in the Lands so purchased, in case the same shall be of Freehold Tenure, or in case the same shall be of any other Tenure the Estate and Interest in the same, shall not (notwithstanding any Provisions in the said Acts or any of them to the contrary) by means of any such Purchase, or any Conveyance made in pursuance thereof, be vested in the said Trustees, but the Freehold and Inheritance of and in the Lands so purchased, in case the same shall be of Freehold Tenure, or in case such Lands shall be of any other Tenure, the Estate and Interest in the same, shall, notwithstanding such Purchase and Conveyance, remain and be vested in the Persons in whom the same were vested immediately prior to such Purchase by the said Trustees; and the said Trustees shall, by means of such Purchase and Conveyance, or either of them, be entitled to a perpetual Right of Way in, over, or upon the Lands purchased by them in pursuance of this Act and the said Acts, or any of them.

Right of Way to cease when Lands are not wanted.

X. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That if at any Time any Land purchased by the said Trustees for the Purposes of the Roads mentioned in this Act, or any of them, shall not be wanted for the same, then and in such Case the Right of Way in, over, or upon the Lands vested in the said Trustees shall cease, determine, and be extinguished; and the Freehold and Inheritance of such Lands, in case the same shall be of Freehold Tenure, and the Estate and Interest in such Lands, in case the same shall be of any other Tenure, shall be and remain in the Person or Persons then entitled to the same, freed and discharged of and from such Right of Way.

The Trustees to have the same Powers of using the Lands taken by them as if they had purchased the Fee Simple.

XI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That the said Trustees shall have such and the same Power and Authority of cutting and digging and otherwise using the Lands and Hereditaments taken by them for the Purposes of this Act, and of building any Toll House, or any Bridge, or any other Erections thereon, as fully and effectually, to all Intents and Purposes, as the said Trustees would have had in case they had purchased the Fee Simple of or other Estate and Interest in the said Lands and Hereditaments, under and by virtue of the Powers contained in any of the Acts now in force for regulating Turnpike Roads in England.

Toll Houses.

XII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Trustees to erect or build, on the said Roads, or on any Part thereof, or upon the Sides thereof or any Part thereof, when and where and as they shall judge proper, any Toll Gates or Toll Bars, Turnpikes, Toll Houses, and Weighing Machines, with Outhouses and Conveniences thereto; and to take in and inclose suitable Garden Spots for such Toll Houses, not exceeding One Eighth Part of a Statute Acre to each Toll House, as they shall think necessary; and from Time to Time to alter, take down, and rebuild, or to discontinue and to remove the same, or any of them, as they shall think proper.

Tolls.

XIII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Trustees, and for any Collector duly authorized, to demand and take, at each and every of the Turnpikes, Toll Gates, Bars, and Chains to be erected or set up in, upon, across, or on the Sides of the said Roads or any Part thereof, the respective Tolls following; (that is to say,)

For every Horse or other Beast, except an Ass, drawing any Coach, Stage Coach, Landau, Chariot, Chaise, Phæton, Caravan, Hearse, Litter, Chair, Gig, Van, or other Carriage of the like Description, by whatsoever Name called or known, a Sum not exceeding Four-pence Halfpenny:

For every empty Carriage with Four Wheels, affixed to any Waggon, Cart, or other Carriage, a Sum not exceeding Sixpence; and for every such Carriage with Two Wheels, affixed to any Waggon, Cart, or other Carriage, a Sum not exceeding Three-pence; and if loaded, Double such respective Sums:

For every Horse, Mule, or other Animal, except an Ass, drawing any Waggon, Wain, Dray, Cart, Tumbril, Drag, Sledge, or other such Carriage, having the Fellies of the Wheels thereof of the Breadth of Six Inches or more, the Sum of Four-pence:

For every Horse or other Beast, except an Ass, drawing any Waggon, Wain, Cart, or other Carriage, having the Fellies of the Wheels of the Breadth of Four Inches and an Half, and less than Six Inches, a Sum not exceeding Five-pence each:

For every Horse, Mule, or other Beast, except an Ass, drawing any Waggon, Wain, Cart, or other such like Carriage, having the Fellies of the Wheels of less Breadth than Four and an Half Inches, a Sum not exceeding Sixpence:

For every Horse, Mule, or other Beast of Burden, except an Ass, laden or unladen, and not drawing, a Sum not exceeding One Penny Halfpenny:

For every Ass, laden or unladen, or drawing any Cart or other Carriage, One Half of the above Tolls respectively:

For every Drove of Oxen, Cows, or other Neat Cattle, the Sum of Ten-pence per Score, and so in proportion for any greater or less Number:

For every Drove of Calves, Pigs, or Hogs, the Sum of Five-pence per Score, and so in proportion for any greater or less Number:

For every Drove of Sheep or Lambs, the Sum of Three-pence per Score, and so in proportion for any greater or less Number.

For every Coach, Vehicle, or other Carriage, of whatever Description, propelled or drawn wholly or in part by Steam, Gas, or Machinery, or otherwise than by Animal Power, the Sum of One Shilling and Sixpence:

And for every Dog drawing any Truck or other Carriage, the Sum of Sixpence:

Which said respective Sums of Money shall be demanded and taken in the Name of or as Tolls before any Horse, Mule, or other Beast or Cattle, or any Carriage whatsoever, shall be permitted to pass through any Turnpike Gate or Bar, and shall be and are hereby vested in the said Trustees, and shall be applied for the Purposes of this Act in manner herein-after directed.

Fractional Part of a Halfpenny in Toll.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That in all Cases where there shall be a fractional Part of a Halfpenny in the Amount of any of the Tolls hereby granted the Sum of One Halfpenny shall be demanded and taken in lieu of such fractional Part.

Limiting the Number of full Tolls.

XV. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That it shall not be lawful for the said Trustees, or their Collector or Collectors, to demand or take Toll for or in respect of the same Horses, Cattle, or Carriages, for passing in any One Day (to be computed as herein-after mentioned) over the whole Line or Lines of the said several Roads, at more than Two Toll Gates, Toll Bars, or Side Gates, except as herein-after mentioned.

Toll to be paid but once each Day.

XVI. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That in case the Toll hereby authorized to be taken shall have been paid for the passing of any Horse, Beast, or Cattle through any of such Toll Gates or Toll Bars, such Horse, Beast, or Cattle shall, at any Time during the same Day, to be computed from Twelve of the Clock at Night to Twelve of the Clock in the next succeeding Night, upon Production of a Ticket denoting the Payment of such Toll on that Day, be permitted to repass Toll-free through the same Toll Gate or Toll Bar, and also through such other Toll Gates and Toll Bars (if any) as the Ticket of such Payment shall free.

Stage Coaches to pay each Time.

XVII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That the Tolls hereby made payable shall be paid for or in respect of all Horses, Beasts, Beasts, or Cattle drawing any Stage Coach, Van, or Caravan carrying Passengers or Goods for Hire or Reward, for each Time of passing and for each Time of repassing along the said Roads: Provided nevertheless, that no further or additional Toll shall be payable in respect of any Stage Coach, Van, or Caravan on account only of the Horses drawing the same having been changed between any Gates freeing each other by Tickets.

Post Chaises to pay on every new Hiring.

XVIII. Provided also, and be it further enacted, That the Tolls hereby made payable shall be paid for or in respect of all Horses, Beasts, and Cattle let out for Hire, and drawing any Post Chaise or other Carriage, for each Time of passing along the said Roads, whenever a new Hiring thereof shall take place.

Application of Tolls.

XIX. And be it further enacted, That all the Monies which shall arise and be produced by or from the Tolls by this Act granted and made payable, together with the Monies that shall be borrowed upon the Credit thereof, and all other Monies which shall arise and be produced by virtue thereof, shall be vested in the said Trustees, and shall be applied to and for the several Uses, Intents, and Purposes, and in the Order and Manner following; (that is to say,) in the first place, in Payment of all Costs, Charges, and Expences which shall have been incurred preparatory to and in applying for, preparing, passing, and obtaining this Act, and otherwise relative thereto; and, in the second place, in defraying the Expences of making, forming, improving, and altering the said Roads, and of erecting necessary and convenient Bridges and Culverts, and in defraying the Expences of building or erecting Turnpikes, Toll Houses, Toll Gates, Side Gates, and Toll Bars, with suitable Outbuildings thereto; and in the third place, in maintaining and repairing the said Roads, and removing, altering, or repairing Gates, Weighing Machines, Toll Houses, and other Conveniences, and executing the general Purposes of this Act; and in the fourth place, in paying and keeping down the Interest of the Monies subscribed and advanced for the Purposes aforesaid upon any Mortgages of the Tolls or Duties hereby granted or made payable; and lastly, in reducing, paying off, and discharging the several Principal Sums of Money due on any such Mortgages or Securities as aforesaid, and all other Debts and Sums of Money now due or owing and hereafter to become due or owing in pursuance of this Act.

No more Money to be laid out on any Road than is collected thereon.

XX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That no Money arising from any of the Tolls mentioned in this Act shall be applied in or towards the Repair of any Road authorized by this Act, unless some Toll Gate, Toll Bar, or Turnpike shall be erected and continued on such Road or on the Side thereof, nor unless the said Tolls shall be demanded and taken thereat pursuant to the Powers and Provisions of this Act: Provided also, that no more Money shall be expended by the said Trustees in or towards the Repair of any of the Roads authorized to be made by this Act than shall be collected thereat, or borrowed on the Credit of the Tolls collected thereon.

XXI. And

Power to Trustees to stop up Highways and Footpaths.

XXI. And whereas, when the Roads hereby authorized to be made are completed, some Parts of the Highways adjoining thereto or communicating therewith, and of the Footpaths leading into or out of the same, may become useless, and other Parts of the said Highways and Footpaths may, for the Convenience of the Public, require to be diverted into the said Turnpike Roads or otherwise; be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the said Trustees, and they are hereby authorized and empowered, at any Meeting to be held under this Act after the making of any of the said Roads, by Writing under their Hands and Seals, with the Consent in Writing of any Two Justices of the Peace for the County of Wilts in Petty Sessions assembled, to order and direct that such Parts of the said Highways and Footpaths, or any of them, as they shall deem expedient, shall be diverted, and that such Part or Parts thereof as they shall deem useless or unnecessary shall be stopped up and be discontinued at the End of Four Calendar Months next after the Date of such Order; and from and after the Expiration of such Four Calendar Months it shall not be lawful for any Person or Persons whomsoever afterwards to use the said Highways or Footpaths, or such Part or Parts thereof as shall be so stopped up and discontinued as aforesaid, but the same shall thenceforth cease to be common Highways or common Footpaths to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever: Provided always, that Notice in Writing of such Order having been made as aforesaid shall be affixed on some conspicuous Place by the Side of the Highways or Footpaths so ordered to be diverted, stopped up, and discontinued as aforesaid, and also upon the principal Door of the Church or Chapel (if any) belonging to the Parishes within which such Highways or Footpaths shall be situate, immediately before Divine Service, upon Three successive Sundays next after the making of such Order, and shall also be inserted Twice in some public Newspaper usually circulated in the said County of Wilts, for the Purpose of enabling any Person who may be aggrieved by the said Order to make his Appeal against the same as herein-after provided; nor shall any such Highway or Footpath be stopped up or discontinued, in case any such Person shall make any such Appeal within Four Calendar Months next after the making of such Order, until the Determination of such Appeal.

Power of Appeal against Order of Trustees.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful for any Person who may be aggrieved by the making of any Order by this Act authorized, for diverting, stopping up, or discontinuing any such old Highways or Footpaths as aforesaid, to appeal against the same at any General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace for the said County of Wilts which shall be held within Four Calendar Months next after the making of the said Order, upon giving a Notice in Writing of such Appeal, to be signed by the Appellant, to the Clerk of the said Trustees for the Time being, or by leaving the same at the usual Place of Abode of such Clerk at least Twenty-one Days before such General or Quarter Sessions of the Peace; and the Justices assembled at such General or Quarter Sessions, upon Proof of such Notice of Trial having been duly given as aforesaid, are hereby authorized and required to hear and determine the said Appeal, and, upon the quashing or Confirmation of the said Order, to answer and adjudge that the Party against whom such Appeal shall be determined shall pay such Costs as the said Justices shall appoint; and the said Appeal, having been so heard and determined, shall be final and conclusive to all Intents and Purposes whatsoever; and no Order against which such Appeal shall be made as aforesaid shall be quashed for Want of Form only: Provided always, that in case no Appeal shall be made within the Time aforesaid the said Order or Orders shall be final and conclusive on all Persons whomsoever.

Satisfaction to be made to the Owners of Lands through which any Diversions of Highways or Footpaths are made.

XXIII. And be it further enacted, That Satisfaction shall be made to the Owner or Owners of the Land or Ground through which any such Diversion of the said Highways or Footpaths respectively shall pass, such Satisfaction to be made by the said Trustees in the Manner directed by the Laws now in force for regulating Turnpike Roads in England; and all Monies expended in diverting or stopping up the said Highways and Footpaths shall be paid out of the Monies received by virtue of this Act.

Power to agree with Trustees of Amesbury Road to take a Portion of their Road under the Care of Trustees of this Act.

XXIV. And whereas a Piece of Road of the Length of Three Quarters of a Mile or thereabouts, forming Part of and belonging to the Amesbury Turnpike Trust, commences at the Town of Amesbury, and extends to the End of the Parish of Amesbury adjoining the Parish of Durrington aforesaid, at which Place it unites with the Road made Turnpike under this Act, and a Turnpike Gate is erected thereon, called Countess Gate, at which Tolls are collected by the Trustees of the said Amesbury Turnpike Trust: And whereas it is expedient, with the View of relieving the Public from the Payment of an additional Toll for passing along and over the said Piece of Road, that Power should be given to the Trustees acting under this Act, with the Consent of the Trustees of the said Amesbury Turnpike Trust, to take the said Piece of Road under their Charge, so that the same may be included in and form Part of the Kennet and Amesbury Turnpike Trust, and be subject to the Powers and Provisions of this Act; be it therefore enacted, That it shall be lawful for the Trustees acting in execution of this Act, and they are hereby empowered, with the Consent of the Person or Persons entitled to Five Sixths of the Money then remaining due upon the Credit of the Tolls authorized to be taken on the said Amesbury Turnpike Trust, to negociate and agree with the Trustees of the Amesbury Turnpike Trust for the Transfer and Assignment to them of the said Piece of Road, together with the said Turnpike Gate thereon erected called Countess Gate, with the Toll House and Premises attached thereto; and that all Contracts and Agreements which may be so entered into for that Purpose under the Powers of this Act, between the Trustees of the said respective Trusts, shall be valid, binding, and conclusive, any Law or Statute to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding: Provided always, that when the said Piece of Road shall have been duly transferred to the Trustees acting in execution of this Act the same shall be subject to the Powers and Provisions of this Act, and shall for ever after be repaired and maintained by the Trustees acting in the Execution of this Act, in as full and ample a Manner as if the same had been included herein, and the said Trustees of the Amesbury Turnpike Trust shall thenceforth be absolutely freed freed and discharged from the Repair of the said Road, and from all Liability or Responsibility in respect thereto.

This Act to be subject to the Provisions of any general Turnpike Road Act.

XXV. And be it further enacted, That nothing herein contained shall be deemed or construed to exempt the Turnpike Roads by this Act authorized to be made from the Provisions of any general Act relating to the Consolidation or other improved Arrangement of Turnpike Roads which may pass during the present or any future Session of Parliament.

Commencement and Continuance of this Act.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall commence on the passing hereof, and shall continue in force for the Term of Thirty-one Years, and from thence to the End of the then next Session of Parliament.

Public Act.

XXVII. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed and taken to be a Public Act, and shall be judicially taken notice of as such by all Judges, Justices, and others.
