SCHEDULE

THE WHITE FISH AUTHORITY (GENERAL LEVY) REGULATIONS, 1952

1. There shall be paid to the Authority, subject to and in accordance with the provisions of these regulations, by every person who purchases white fish on a first-hand sale thereof, a levy at the rate of one halfpenny for every stone of white fish so purchased by him:

Provided that—

(a) if white fish is purchased on a first-hand sale through or from a wholesale merchant who sells on commission at or from premises situate elsewhere than at the port or place of landing, the levy shall be paid to the Authority by the said wholesale merchant, who shall be entitled to recover from the purchaser of the white fish in respect of which the levy is payable the amount of the levy so payable;

(b) no levy shall be payable in respect of a first-hand sale of shellfish.

2. The amount payable to the Authority by any person on account of the levy under the last foregoing regulation shall be paid to the Authority, or as they may direct, within seven days after the end of the week during which there took place the first-hand sale of the white fish in respect of which the levy is payable, or the week during which such fish was imported or brought into the United Kingdom, whichever is the later.

3.—(1) Every person who sells white fish otherwise than by retail shall keep or cause to be kept an accurate record of all his purchases and sales of white fish (other than sales by retail), including in respect of each such purchase or sale the date thereof, the name and address of the seller or purchaser, the descriptions of fish purchased or sold (indicating separately each species of fish and any headless fish or fillets), the net weight of each description and the price paid or charged.

(2) Every person who sells white fish by retail and every fish frier shall keep or cause to be kept an accurate record of all his purchases of white fish, including in respect of each such purchase the date thereof, the name and address of the seller, the descriptions of fish purchased (indicating separately each species of fish and any headless fish or fillets), the net weight of each description and the price paid.

(3) In respect of every sale or purchase of white fish which it is customary or usual to sell or purchase by reference to a method of calculation of quantity other than a calculation by weight, the records which are required to be kept under the provisions of the two foregoing paragraphs of this regulation by the persons referred to therein, shall, in addition to and not in derogation of the requirements of the said paragraphs, include particulars of white fish so sold or purchased by reference to the said method of calculation of quantity.

(4) The retention by any person of an accurate invoice or a copy thereof shall, as respects any of the matters hereinbefore mentioned of which sufficient particulars are contained in the said document, be deemed to be to that extent a compliance by that person with the foregoing provisions of this regulation.

(5) For the purpose of the foregoing provisions of this regulation, any description or species of white fish may be indicated by any customary or usual trade name.

4.—(1) In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires, the following expressions shall have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them:—

"First-hand sale" means—

(a) in relation to white fish which has been landed outside the United Kingdom, but which is purchased by a person carrying on business in the white fish industry and is imported or brought into the United Kingdom for the purposes of any such business, the first sale thereof (whether in the United Kingdom or elsewhere) to such a person as aforesaid;

(b) in relation to any other white fish, the first sale thereof (other than a sale by retail) after it has been landed in the United Kingdom.

"Sale by retail" means a sale to a person buying otherwise than for the purposes of re-sale or processing or use as bait, and includes a sale to a person for the purposes of a catering business (other than a fish frying business); and

"Sell by retail" has a corresponding meaning.

"Stone" means fourteen pounds avoirdupois.

"Week" means a period of seven consecutive days ending at midnight on any Saturday.

"Wholesale merchant" means any person selling or offering for sale white fish otherwise than by retail.

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889(a), shall apply to the interpretation of these regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

5. The White Fish Authority (General Levy) Regulations, 1951(b), are hereby revoked.

6. These regulations, which may be cited as the White Fish Authority (General Levy) Regulations, 1952, shall come into operation on the 9th day of June, 1952.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

This Order confirms Regulations made by the White Fish Authority, imposing as from 9th June, 1952, a levy at the rate of one halfpenny for every stone of white fish landed on first-hand sale. This levy is payable by the first-hand buyer; and all white fish, other than shellfish, are subject to the levy. The Regulations apply to the United Kingdom. The White Fish Authority (General Levy) Regulations, 1951, which made similar provision for Great Britain only, are revoked.
