EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Order, but is intended to indicate its general purport.)

The White Fish and Herring Industries Act, 1953, provides that, with a view to promoting the landing in the United Kingdom of a continuous and plentiful supply of white fish, schemes may be made for the payment of grants to the owners or charterers of fishing vessels engaged in catching such fish. The Act also provides that the aggregate amount of the grants made in pursuance of the aforesaid schemes shall not exceed £7,500,000 or such greater sum (not exceeding £10,000,000) as may be prescribed by an Order made by the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food and the Secretary of State for Scotland.

This Order raises to £10,000,000 the aggregate amount of the grants which may be made under the schemes.

As required by section 11 of the Act this Order was approved by a resolution of the House of Commons on 18th July, 1956.
