CUSTOMS AND EXCISE

The Wine and Made-wine of a Strength exceeding 1.2 per cent. and not exceeding 5.5 per cent. (Prohibition of Fortification) Regulations 1989

Made - - - -	1st June 1989
Laid before Parliament	9th June 1989
Coming into force	1st July 1989

The Commissioners of Customs and Excise, in exercise of the powers conferred on them by section 55A of the Alcoholic Liquor Duties Act 1979(a), and of all other powers enabling them in that behalf, hereby make the following Regulations:

Citation and commencement

1. These Regulations may be cited as the Wine and Made-wine of a Strength exceeding 1.2 per cent. and not exceeding 5.5 per cent. (Prohibition of Fortification) Regulations 1989, and shall come into force on 1st July 1989.

Application

2. These Regulations apply to wine and made-wine of a strength exceeding 1.2 per cent., but not exceeding 5.5 per cent.

Prohibition

3. Except as provided by regulation 4 or under regulation 5 below, wine or made-wine to which these Regulations apply may not be fortified at any time–

(a) after it leaves the entered or approved premises on which it was produced; or

(b) in the case of wine or made-wine produced outside the United Kingdom, after it is imported into the United Kingdom, and before it is sold by retail or otherwise supplied for consumption.

Exception for goods in excise warehouse

4. The Commissioners may allow wine or made-wine to which these Regulations apply to be fortified in an excise warehouse in accordance with warehousing regulations.

(a) 1979 c.4; section 55A was inserted by the Finance Act 1988 (c.39), section 1 and Schedule 1, paragraph 6.

General exception

5. Wine or made-wine to which these Regulations apply may be fortified–

(a) in such cases; and

(b) subject to such conditions,

as the Commissioners may specify.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations come into force on 1st July 1989. They control, in the interest of revenue protection, the fortification of both UK manufactured and imported wines and made-wines of a strength exceeding 1.2 per cent. but not exceeding 5.5 per cent.

They apply to such wines and made-wines after they have been imported or removed from entered or approved premises and before they are sold by retail or otherwise supplied for consumption.

The Regulations are consequential to the new duty structure for such wines and made-wines introduced by section 1(5) of, and Part II of Schedule 1 to, the Finance Act 1988 and brought into force on 1st October 1988 by the Beverages of an Alcoholic Strength not exceeding 5.5 per cent. (Provisions) (Appointed Day) Order 1988 (S.I. 1988/1634).

2.—(1) The Agency shall be wound up in accordance with the provisions of this Article.

(2) On the coming into force of this Article the Agency shall cease to exercise its functions, except insofar as the continued exercise of those functions may be necessary or expedient for the purpose of winding up.

(3) Between the coming into force of this Article and the dissolution date the Agency shall so far as is practicable discharge all of its liabilities.

(4) The Agency shall for the part of its financial year ending with the dissolution date make a final report to the Secretary of State in accordance with the provisions of section 6 of the 1978 Act and that report shall include a statement of the accounts of the Agency to that date together with a copy of any report made to the auditors on the accounts. The Secretary of State shall lay a copy of the report before Parliament.

(a) 1984 c.57
(b) 1978 c.21

Vesting Provisions

3.—(1) All property (including records) and rights to date to which the Agency was entitled immediately before the dissolution date and any liabilities to which the Agency was then subject, not having been discharged under Article 2(3) above are hereby transferred to and shall vest in the Secretary of State.

(2) Any legal proceedings which, but for this Order, could have been commenced or continued by or in relation to the Agency may be commenced or continued by or in relation to the Secretary of State.

(3) Every contract, agreement, licence and authority, whether written or not, and every deed, bond, instrument and document made before the dissolution date and still in effect at that time which relates to property, rights or obligations of the Agency shall continue in effect but subject to the following modifications, so far as they are applicable:—

(a) if the Agency is a party thereto the Secretary of State shall be substituted as that party;

(b) for a reference (however worded and whether express or implied) to the Agency there shall, as respects anything falling to be done or occurring after that time, be substituted a reference to the Secretary of State;

(c) for a reference (however worded or whether express or implied) to the members or any member or to any officer or officers of the Agency there shall be substituted as respects anything done or falling to be done or occurring on or after the dissolution date, a reference to such officer or officers as the Secretary of State shall appoint for the purpose; and;

(d) for a reference to the office or place of business of the Agency there shall be substituted the office of the Secretary of State.

Dissolution of the Agency

4. The Agency is hereby dissolved.

Signed by order of the Secretary of State.

Minister of State,
Department of Employment

The Social Security (Married Women and Widows) (Miscellaneous Provisions) Regulations 1989

Made - - - -	1989
Coming into force	28th May 1989

Whereas a draft of the following Regulations was laid before Parliament in accordance with the provisions of section 167(1)(a) of the Social Security Act 1975(a) and approved by resolution of each House of Parliament:

Now, therefore, the Secretary of State for Social Security, in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 13(4), 30(3), 130(1), 162 and 166(2) and (3) of the Social Security Act 1975(b), section 2(1) of and paragraphs 3, 7 and 9 of Schedule 3 to the Social Security (Consequential Provisions) Act 1975(c) and section 24(1)(a) of the Social Security Pensions Act 1975(d) and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, after agreement by the Social Security Advisory Committee that the proposals to make these Regulations should not be referred to it(e), hereby makes the following Regulations:

Citation, commencement and interpretation

1.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Social Security (Married Women and Widows) (Miscellaneous Provisions) Regulations 1989 and shall come into force on 28th May 1989.

(2) In these Regulations–

"the 1975 Act" means the Social Security Act 1975;

"day of unemployment", "day of incapacity for work" and "period of interruption of employment" shall be construed in accordance with section 17 of the 1975 Act;

"Married Women and Widows Special Provisions Regulations" means the Social Security (Benefit) (Married Women and Widows Special Provisions) Regulations 1974(f).

Amendment of the Married Women and Widows' Special Provisions Regulations

2.—(1) The Married Women and Widows' Special Provisions Regulations shall be amended in accordance with the following provisions of this regulation.

(2) Subject to regulation 6 of these Regulations, regulation 2 (special credits where a woman's marriage has been terminated) shall be omitted.

(a) 1975 c.14. Section 167(1)(a) was amended by the Social Security Pensions Act 1975 (c.60), Schedule 5 and the Social Security Act 1986 (c.50), section 62(3) and Schedule 10, paragraph 65.

(b) 1975 c.14. See section 168(1) and Schedule 20 for the meaning of "regulations". Section 13(4) was amended by the Social Security Act 1986 (c.50), Schedule 8, paragraph 2.

(c) 1975 c.18. See Schedule 3, paragraph 1 for the meaning of "prescribed". Schedule 3 was amended by the Social Security Pensions Act 1975 (c.60), section 65(3) and Schedule 5.

(d) 1975 c.60. Section 24(1)(a) was amended by the Social Security Act 1986 (c.50), Schedule 10, paragraph 92.

(e) See section 10(2)(b) of the Social Security Act 1980 (c.30) and section 61(1)(b) of the Social Security Act 1986.

(f) S.I. 1974/2010; the relevant amending instruments S.I. 1979/345 and 1980/1168.

(3) In regulation 3 (modifications, in relation to widows, of provisions with respect to unemployment and sickness benefit, maternity allowance and Category A retirement pension)–

(a) in paragraph (5)(a), the words after "contributions or both" to the end shall be omitted and there shall be substituted the words–

"and the earnings factor derived from–

(i) earnings paid in a year upon which primary Class 1 contributions have been paid or treated as paid in respect of that year, or

(ii) earnings with which she has been credited in respect of that year, or

(iii) Class 2 contributions, is not less than that year's lower earnings limit multiplied by 25; and"; and

(b) subject to regulation 6 of these Regulations, paragraph 3(10) shall be omitted.

(4) Regulations 3B(a), 5, 8 and 10 shall be omitted.

Amendment of the Social Security (Graduated Retirement Benefit) (No. 2) Regulations 1978

3. In the Social Security (Graduated Retirement Benefit) (No. 2) Regulations 1978(b), for regulation 2 there shall be substituted the following regulation–

"Application of provisions of sections 63 and 64 of the Social Security Act 1986

2. The provisions of sections 63 and 64 of the Social Security Act 1986(c) (annual up-rating of benefits and effect of alteration of rates of benefit) shall apply to the amount of graduated retirement benefit payable for each unit of graduated contributions and to increases of such benefit under the provisions of Schedule 2 to these Regulations.".

Amendment of the Social Security (Widow's Benefit and Retirement Pensions) Regulations 1979

4. In regulation 2(3) of the Social Security (Widow's Benefit and Retirement Pensions) Regulations 1979(d) (election to be treated as not having retired), for the words "on the date it was posted" there shall be substituted the words "on the date on which it was received in an office of the Department of Social Security.".

Savings

5. For the purposes of determining whether the contribution condition referred to in regulation 3(5)(a) of the Married Women and Widows Special Provisions Regulations is satisfied in any case, that regulation shall continue to have effect in relation to any year beginning before 6th April 1988 as though regulation 2(3) of these Regulations had not been made.

Transitional provisions for special credits where a woman's marriage has been terminated

6. Where before 28th May 1989 a woman would have been able to satisfy the second contribution condition for unemployment benefit or sickness benefit only by virtue of regulations 2 or 3(10) of the Married Women and Widows Special Provisions Regulations, those Regulations shall continue to apply to her as if paragraphs (2) and (3)(b) of regulation 2 of these Regulations had not been enacted–

(a) where after 27th May 1989 she has a day of unemployment and that day falls within a period of interruption of employment which began before 28th May 1989, until either the day immediately following that period of interruption of employment or 1st October 1989, whichever is the earlier; or

(a) Regulation 3B was inserted by S.I. 1980/1168.
(b) S.I. 1978/393; regulation 2(1) was amended and regulation 2(2) revoked by S.I. 1981/330.
(c) 1986 c.50.
(d) S.I. 1979/642.

(b) where after 27th May 1989 she has a day of incapacity for work and that day falls within a period of interruption of employment which began before 28th May 1989, until–

(i) where the period of interruption of employment ends before 2nd October 1989, the day immediately following the last day of that period, or

(ii) where that period of interruption of employment continues after 1st October 1989–

(a) the day on which entitlement to invalidity pension begins, or

(b) the first day after 1st October 1989, not being a day referred to in section 17(1)(e) of the 1975 Act, which is not a day of incapacity for work, whichever is the earlier; or

(c) where after 27th May 1989 a person has a day of incapacity for work and that day falls within–

(i) a period of interruption of employment, and

(ii) a period of 57 days immediately following the end of a period of entitlement to statutory sick pay which contained at least one day of incapacity for work which fell before 28th May 1989, until, where the period of interruption of employment–

(a) ends before 2nd October 1989, the day immediately following the last day of that period, or

(b) continues after 1st October 1989,

(i) the day on which entitlement to invalidity pension begins, or

(ii) the first day after 1st October 1989, not being a day referred to in section 17(1)(e) of the 1975 Act, which is not a day of incapacity for work, whichever is the earlier.

Signed by authority of the Secretary of State for Social Security.

1989 Department of Social Security

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations, a draft of which has been laid before and approved by resolution of each House of Parliament, amend the Social Security (Benefit) (Married Women and Widows Special Provisions) Regulations 1974, the Social Security (Graduated Retirement Benefit) (No. 2) Regulations 1978 and the Social Security (Widow's Benefit and Retirement Pensions) Regulations 1979.

The amendments are consequential upon–

(1) the coming into force of section 75 of and Schedule 8 to the Social Security Act 1986 which relate to earnings factors (regulation 2(3)); and

(2) the coming into force of sections 63 and 64 of the Social Security Act 1986 which relate to the changes in the rate of benefit and the repeal in Schedule 10 to that Act of sections 124 to 126A of the Social Security Act 1975 (regulation 3).

In addition regulations 2, 3(10), 3B, 5, 8 and 10 of the Social Security (Benefit) (Married Women and Widows' Special Provisions) Regulations 1974 are revoked (regulations 2(2), (3)(b) and (4)). Regulation 2(3) of the Social Security (Widow's Benefit and Retirement Pensions) Regulations 1979 has been amended by changing the date on which notices of de-retirement are deemed to have been given from the date the notice was posted to the date it was received in an office of the Department of Social Security (regulation 4).

The Regulations contain savings relating to unemployment benefit, sickness benefit and maternity allowance (regulation 5) and provide for transitional arrangements for women who were given credits in order that they might claim unemployment benefit and sickness benefit (regulation 6).

(a) S.I. 1970/1961.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note does not form part of the Regulations)

These Regulations revoke and replace the Royal Botanic Garden and Arboretum Edinburgh, Regulations 1970 ("the 1970 Regulations").

They prescribe (a) those acts which are prohibited and (b) those acts for which written permission is required, within the Royal Botanic Garden, Edinburgh and its outstations at the Younger Botanic Garden Benmore, the Logan Botanic Garden and the Dawyck Botanic Garden (regulations 3 and 4).

The Regulations take account of the appointment under the National Heritage Act 1985 of a Board of Trustees for the Garden.

The main changes are–

(a) that any notices or signs exhibited at the Garden will be by Order of the Board of Trustees;

(b) that certain acts (which under the 1970 Regulations required the written permission of the Secretary of State) now require the written permission of the Board of Trustees;

(c) that picnicking is permitted in certain areas of the Garden;

(d) that certain acts, which were prohibited altogether under the 1970 Regulations are now permitted providing written permission of the Board of Trustees has been obtained (regulation 4(k), (l) and (m)).

Any person challenged by a park constable or police constable with a contravention of these Regulations must supply his full name and address (regulation 5).

In terms of section 2(1) of the Parks Regulation (Amendment) Act 1926 any person who fails to comply with or acts in contravention of the Regulations shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction to a penalty not exceeding Level 1 on the standard scale (at present £50).

Preface

This List contains:

(a) a list of the general and local statutory instruments issued in December 1989, arranged under subject headings. Each entry includes, where available or appropriate: the enabling power, as set out in italics; the date when the instrument was issued, made and laid and comes into force; a short note of any effect; ISBN and price;

(b) a numerical list of the same instruments, with their subject headings;

(c) a list of instruments which have subsidiary numbers (C for commencement orders; L for instruments relating to court fees or procedure in England and Wales; N.I. for orders in Council relating only to Northern Ireland; S for instruments that extend only to Scotland;

(d) an alphabetical subject index;

(e) a list of Northern Ireland statutory rules and associated indexes (see p. 565.)

Details of later published statutory instruments may be found in the Daily list of publications from HMSO, and in subsequent issues of this catalogue. Statutory instruments from previous years are listed in the annual lists: details of those catalogues still available appear on the inside back cover.

The full text of the general statutory instruments appears in the Annual edition of statutory instruments. This is issued in three consecutive parts, each of which has an index and table of effects. Part III also contains a classified list of the local statutory instruments (both published and unpublished.)

To find out what statutory instruments are in force on a given subject, or under a particular act, refer to the Index to government orders. This is published every two years, with a supplement in the intervening year. To ascertain whether a particular statutory instrument is still in force, refer to the Table of government orders published annually with a noter-up during its currency. Alternatively, contact HMSO's enquiries section (see p. viii.)

Prices are subject to change without notice. Customers are advised to check with HMSO as to price and availability before placing an order (see enquiries p. viii.)
