TELEGRAPHS

The Wireless Telegraphy (Broadcast Licence Charges) Regulations 1967

Made - - -	23rd October 1967
Laid before Parliament	1st November 1967
Coming into Operation	1st January 1968

I, The Right Honourable Edward Watson Short, M.P., Her Majesty's Postmaster General, with the consent of the Treasury, by virtue of the power vested in me by section 2 of the Wireless Telegraphy Act 1949(a), by the said section as extended to the Channel Islands by the Wireless Telegraphy (Channel Islands) Order 1952(b) and by the said section as extended to the Isle of Man by the Wireless Telegraphy (Isle of Man) Order 1952 (c), and of every other power enabling me in this behalf, do hereby make the following regulations:

Interpretation

1.—(1) In these regulations, except so far as the context otherwise requires, the following expressions have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them:

"the Act" means the Wireless Telegraphy Act 1949;

"authorised broadcasting stations" means stations for the time being duly authorised to conduct a broadcasting service pursuant to the International Radiocommunication Regulations for the time being in force;

"broadcast receiving licence" means a licence to instal and use apparatus for wireless telegraphy for the purpose primarily of receiving messages sent by telephony from authorised broadcasting stations for general reception, or for the purpose primarily of receiving visual images sent by television from such broadcasting stations for general reception, or for both of those purposes, not being either a broadcast relay station licence or a licence in respect of which the issue fee is prescribed by the Wireless Telegraphy (General Licence Charges) Regulations 1954 as amended(d) or any regulations subsequently amending or replacing the same;

"broadcast relay station licence" means a licence to establish and use stations for wireless telegraphy for the purpose solely or primarily of receiving programmes broadcast by authorised broadcasting stations and relaying them by wire to the premises of subscribers to the licensee's broadcast relay service;

(a) 12, 13 & 14 Geo. 6. c. 54. (b) S. I. 1952/1900 (1952 III, p. 3414).
(c) S. I. 1952/1899 (1952 III, p. 3418).
(d) S. I. 1954/439, 1957/978 (1954 II, p. 2376; 1957 II, p. 2544).

"let" means let by way of either a tenancy or a licence, and either with or without board or other services or facilities;

"licence" (expect in the foregoing definition of "let") means a wireless telegraphy licence granted under section 1 of the Act or having effect by virtue of section 18(2) of the Act, as the case may be;

and other expressions have the same meaning as they have in the Act.

(2) The Interpretation Act 1889(a) applies for the interpretation of these regulations as it applies for the interpretation of an Act of Parliament, and as if these regulations and the regulations hereby revoked were Acts of Parliament.

Broadcast Receiving Licences

Issue fees

2.—(1) On the issue of a broadcast receiving licence of a type and description specified in Schedule 1 the licensee shall pay an issue fee of the amount specified in relation to that type and description of licence in Schedule 1, whatever may be the duration of the licence.

(2) On the issue of any other broadcast receiving licence (not being a licence of a type wholly or mainly intended to meet the needs of persons desiring to use, in a private dwellinghouse and without making any charge to other persons, apparatus not designed or adapted for emission as opposed to reception), the licensee shall pay an issue fee of such amount as may in the particular case appear to the Postmaster General to be proper.

Duplicate licences

3. On the issue of a duplicate of a broadcast receiving licence to which regulation 2(1) applies and which has been lost or destroyed, the licensee shall pay a fee of one shilling.

Broadcast Relay Station Licences

Issue fees

4. On the issue of a broadcast relay station licence the licensee shall pay an issue fee of the amount specified in Schedule 2 in relation to licences of the type and description of that licence.

Annual fees

5.—(1) During the continuance in force of any broadcast relay station licence, whether granted under the Act or granted under the Wireless Telegraphy Acts 1904 to 1926 and continuing in force by virtue of section 18(1) of the Act after the 31st May 1954, the licensee shall pay on the 1st January in each year an annual fee of the amount specified in Schedule 2 in relation to licences of the type and description of that licence according to the number of subscribers to the licensee's broadcast relay service who are served under the licence on the day before the fee becomes due.

(a) 52 & 53 Vict. c. 63.

(2) No royalty shall be payable under any broadcast relay station licence granted under the Wireless Telegraphy Acts 1904 to 1926 and continuing in force as aforesaid.

GENERAL

6. On the revocation or variation of a licence no part of any fee already paid or due to be paid shall be refunded or cease to be due unless the Postmaster General so determines.

Revocation

7. The Wireless Telegraphy (Broadcast Licence Charges) Regulations 1965 (a) are hereby revoked.

Citation and Commencement

8. These regulations may be cited as the Wireless Telegraphy (Broadcast Licence Charges) Regulations 1967, and shall come into operation on the 1st January 1968.

Dated 13th October 1967.

Edward Short,
Her Majesty's Postmaster General.

We consent to these regulations.

E. Alan Fitch,
Harry Gourlay,
Two of the Commissioners of
Her Majesty's Treasury.

23rd October 1967.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations.)

These regulations replace the Wireless Telegraphy (Broadcast Licence Charges) Regulations 1965, providing for the fees payable on the issue of sound and television broadcast receiving licences and Broadcast Relay Station Licences. They include provision for coloured television and for licences to dealers for demonstration purposes.
