Type of Licence	Description of Licence	Issue Fee
5. Broadcast Receiving Licence (excluding Television)— Multiple form.	A licence to instal apparatus for wireless telegraphy at each of the places specified in the licence, or (as the case may be) in each of the vehicles or vessels specified in the licence, and to use the apparatus for purposes which do not include the reception of visual images sent by television.	£1 for each place, vehicle or vessel specified in the licence.
6. Broadcast Receiving Licence (including Television)— Multiple form.	A licence to instal apparatus for wireless telegraphy at each of the places specified in the licence, or (as the case may be) in each of the vehicles or vessels specified in the licence, and to use the apparatus for purposes which include the reception of visual images sent by television (not being a licence authorising the use of apparatus for wireless telegraphy for the purpose of the exhibition of visual images received by television to persons who are charged for viewing such exhibition).	£3 for each place, vehicle or vessel specified in the licence.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations add two forms of Multiple broadcast receiving licence to the First Schedule to the principal Regulations, and prescribe the fees payable on their issue. The fees prescribed as payable on the General forms and Hotels Comprehensive forms of broadcast receiving licence are the same as under the principal Regulations.

1957 No. 978

The Wireless Telegraphy (General Licence Charges) Amendment (No. 1) Regulations, 1957

Made - - - -	5th June, 1957
Laid before Parliament	7th June, 1957
Coming into Operation	31st July, 1957

I, The Right Honourable Alfred Ernest Marples, M.P., Her Majesty's Postmaster-General, with the consent of the Treasury, by virtue of the power vested in me by section two of the Wireless Telegraphy Act, 1949(a), by the said section as extended to the Channel Islands by the Wireless Telegraphy (Channel Islands) Order, 1952(b) and by the said section as extended to the

(a) 12, 13 & 14 Geo. 6. c. 54. (b) S.I. 1952/1900 (1952 III, p. 3414).

Isle of Man by the Wireless Telegraphy (Isle of Man) Order, 1952(a), and of every other power enabling me in this behalf, do hereby make the following Regulations, that is to say:—

1.—(1) These Regulations shall be read as one with the Wireless Telegraphy (General Licence Charges) Regulations, 1954(b) (hereinafter called "the principal Regulations");

(2) The Interpretation Act, 1889(c) applies to the interpretation of these regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Private mobile radio licence

2. The description of a private mobile radio licence specified in the item numbered 9 in the Schedule hereto and the issue fee and renewal fee specified in the said item in relation thereto, shall be substituted for the description of a private mobile radio licence specified in the item numbered 9 in Part 1 of the First Schedule to the principal Regulations and for the issue fee and renewal fee specified in the said item in relation thereto.

Private mobile radio (limited period) licence and induction communication licence

3. The specifications contained in the items numbered 16 and 17 in the Schedule hereto of the type and description of a private mobile radio (limited period) licence and of an induction communication licence, the issue fees specified in the said items in relation to such respective licences, and the renewal fee specified in the said item numbered 17 in relation to an induction communication licence, shall be added to Part 1 of the First Schedule to the principal Regulations.

Fees on variation of certain licences

4. In paragraph (1) of regulation five of the principal Regulations (which paragraph provides for the fee payable whenever a private mobile radio licence or a demonstration licence is varied by the addition of one or more stations for wireless telegraphy), the words "a private mobile radio licence or" are hereby revoked.

5. Whenever a private mobile radio licence is varied by the addition of one or more stations for wireless telegraphy to those for the time being comprised in the licence, the licensee shall pay a fee at the following rate in respect of each additional station:—

	£	s.	d.
Where the date of the variation is more than 9 months before the next date on which the licence would cease to be in force if a renewal fee were not paid ...	2	0	0
Where the former date is more than 6 months but not more than 9 months before the latter date	1	10	0
Where the former date is more than 3 months but not more than 6 months before the latter date	1	0	0
Where the former date is not more than 3 months before the latter date	0	10	0

(a) S.I. 1952/1899 (1952 III, p. 3418). (b) S.I. 1954/439 (1954 II, p. 2376).
(c) 52 & 53 Vict. c. 63.

6.—(1) Paragraph (4) of regulation six of the principal Regulations (which paragraph relates to the fee payable whenever a licence specified in item 8 in the Second Schedule to the principal Regulations is varied by the addition of one or more stations for wireless telegraphy), and the said item 8, are hereby revoked.

(2) Paragraph (5) of the said regulation six (which paragraph relates to the fee payable whenever any other licence having effect by virtue of Subsection (2) of Section eighteen of the Act after the 31st day of May, 1954 is so varied) is hereby revoked, and the following paragraph shall be substituted therefor:

"(2) Paragraph (2) of regulation five shall apply to any licence having effect by virtue of subsection (2) of section eighteen of the Act after the 31st day of May, 1954."

7. These regulations shall come into operation on the 31st day of July, 1957, and may be cited as the Wireless Telegraphy (General Licence Charges) Amendment (No. 1) Regulations, 1957.

Dated this 5th day of June, 1957.

Ernest Marples,
Her Majesty's Postmaster-General.

We consent to these regulations.

Martin Redmayne,
Anthony Barber,
Two of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

5th June, 1957.

THE SCHEDULE

Regulations 2 and 3

Type of Licence	Description of Licence	Issue fee	Renewal fee
9. Private Mobile Radio Licence	A licence to establish and use, on specified frequencies not being below 30 megacycles a second, specified sending and receiving stations for wireless telegraphy for the purpose of sending and receiving spoken messages concerning the business of the licensee between the stations, or between one or some of the stations and another or others of them (not being a licence authorising the transmission of messages directly between fixed stations).	At the rate of £3 for each of the first two stations specified in the licence and £2 for each of the other stations specified in the licence.	At the rate of £3 for each of the first two of the stations comprised in the licence on the last date on which the renewal fee is payable and £2 for each of the other stations comprised in the licence on the said date.

Type of Licence	Description of Licence	Issue fee	Renewal fee
16. Private Mobile Radio (Limited Period) Licence	A licence to establish and use, for a period not exceeding twenty-eight days, specified sending and receiving stations for wireless telegraphy, (using for emission either the frequency of 85·875 megacycles a second at any fixed station and the frequency of 72·375 megacycles a second at any other station, or the frequency of 167·2 megacycles a second at any fixed station and the frequency of 172·0 megacycles a second at any other station), for the purpose of sending and receiving spoken messages concerning the business of the licensee between the stations, or between one or some of the stations and another or others of them (not being a licence authorising the transmission of messages directly between fixed stations).	£1	—
17. Induction Communication Licence	A licence to establish and use, within a specified frequency band not being above 250 kilocycles a second, sending and receiving stations for wireless telegraphy, the number whereof is not limited by the licence, for the purpose of sending and receiving messages concerning the business of the licensee between the stations, or between one or some of the stations and another or others of them (not being a licence authorising the transmission of messages directly between fixed stations).	£2	£2

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations reduce from £3 to £2 the issue and renewal fees payable for each station after the first two comprised in a private mobile radio licence, and make corresponding reductions in the fees payable on the variation of such a licence.

The Regulations also add two new forms of licence to Part 1 of the First Schedule to the principal Regulations, and specify the issue and renewal fees payable in respect of them.