1954 No. 439

The Wireless Telegraphy (General Licence Charges) Regulations 1954

Made - - - -	2nd April, 1954
Laid before Parliament	5th April, 1954
Coming into Operation	1st June, 1954

I, The Right Honourable Herbrand Edward Dundonald Brassey Earl De La Warr, Her Majesty's Postmaster-General, with the consent of the Treasury, by virtue of the power vested in me by section two of the Wireless Telegraphy Act 1949(a), by the said section as extended to the Channel Islands by the Wireless Telegraphy (Channel Islands) Order 1952(b), and by the said section as extended to the Isle of Man by the Wireless Telegraphy (Isle of Man) Order 1952(c), and of every other power enabling me in this behalf, do hereby make the following Regulations, that is to say:—

Interpretation

1.—(1) In these regulations, except so far as the context otherwise requires, the following expressions have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them:—

" the Act " means the Wireless Telegraphy Act 1949 ;

" aircraft station " means a station for wireless telegraphy established in an aircraft ;

" amateur station " means a station for wireless telegraphy established and used, as part of the self-training of the licensee in communication by wireless telegraphy, for the purpose of communication with other stations similarly established and used ; and " amateur television station " shall be construed accordingly ;

" coast station " means a station for wireless telegraphy on land which is established or licensed by the Government of the State in which it is situated to send and receive public correspondence and other messages to and from any ship station, but does not include a station which is licensed only to send and receive messages to and from a limited number of ship stations ;

" demonstration licence " means a licence of the description specified in item 6 in Part 1 of the First Schedule hereto which is granted under section one of the Act ;

" fixed station " means a station for wireless telegraphy established at a fixed location ;

" licence " means a wireless telegraphy licence granted under section one of the Act or having effect by virtue of subsection (2) of section eighteen of the Act, as the case may be, not being either:—

(a) a licence of a type wholly or mainly intended to meet the needs of persons desiring to use, in a private dwellinghouse and without making

(a) 12, 13 & 14 Geo. 6. c. 54. (b) S.I. 1952/1900 (1952 III, p. 3414).
(c) S.I. 1952/1899 (1952 III, p. 3418).

any charge to other persons, apparatus not designed or adapted for emission (as opposed to reception), or

(b) any other licence to which the Wireless Telegraphy (Broadcast Licence Charges) Regulations 1954(a) or any regulations amending or replacing the same apply ;

" private mobile radio licence " means a licence of the description specified in item 9 of Part 1 of the First Schedule hereto which is granted under section one of the Act ;

" ship station " means a station for wireless telegraphy established in a vessel which is not permanently moored ;

" special service station " means a station for wireless telegraphy which provides, for the benefit of shipping generally, all or any of the following services :—

notices to navigators, meteorological bulletins, medical advices, standard frequencies and time signals ;

" radionavigation station " means a station for wireless telegraphy which provides for the benefit of shipping generally a service to enable ships to determine their distance from, or their position or bearing in relation to, any object ; and other expressions have the same meaning as they have in the Act.

(2) The Interpretation Act 1889(b) applies to the interpretation of these regulations as it applies to the interpretation of an Act of Parliament.

Issue fees

2. On the issue of a licence of a type and description specified in the First Schedule hereto, the licensee shall pay an issue fee of the amount specified in relation to that type and description of licence in the said Schedule, whatever may be the duration of the licence.

Renewal fees

3.—(1) On every occasion when, by virtue of a term or provision in the licence, a licence of a type and description specified in Part 1 of the First Schedule hereto and granted under section one of the Act would cease to be in force on a particular date unless a renewal fee were paid, and the licensee desires that the licence should remain in force for a further period after that date, he shall pay on or before that date, in respect of the period following, a renewal fee of the amount specified in relation to that type and description of licence in the said Schedule.

(2) So long as any licence of a type and description specified in Part 2 of the First Schedule hereto and granted under section one of the Act remains in force, the licensee shall pay in advance in each year on or before the date specified in the licence, in respect of the year following, a renewal fee of the amount specified in relation to that type and description of licence in the said Schedule.

(a) S.I. 1954/438, p. 2363 above.

(b) 52 & 53 Vict. c. 63.

Other issue and renewal fees

4. On the issue or renewal of any licence granted under section one of the Act which is not of a type or description specified in the First Schedule hereto, the licensee shall pay an issue or renewal fee of such amount as may in the particular case appear to the Postmaster-General to be proper.

Fees on variation of certain licences

5.—(1) Whenever a private mobile radio licence or a demonstration licence is varied by the addition of one or more stations for wireless telegraphy to those for the time being comprised in the licence, the licensee shall pay a fee at the following rate in respect of each additional station:—

Where the date of the variation is more than 9 months before the next date on which the licence would cease to be in force if a renewal fee were not paid ...	3	0	0
Where the former date is more than 6 months but not more than 9 months before the latter date	2	5	0
Where the former date is more than 3 months but not more than 6 months before the latter date	1	10	0
Where the former date is not more than 3 months before the latter date	0	15	0

(2) Whenever a licence to which regulation four applies (not being a licence granted in pursuance of section four of the Act) is so varied, the licensee shall pay a fee of such amount as may in the particular case appear to the Postmaster-General to be proper.

Transitional provisions

6.—(1) In respect of every licence having effect by virtue of subsection (2) of section eighteen of the Act after the 31st day of May 1954, the licensee shall pay a renewal fee under these regulations on or before every subsequent date on which a royalty or renewal fee (however described) is expressed to be payable under any term or condition in the licence, or, where no royalty or renewal fee is so expressed to be payable, on every subsequent anniversary of the date on which the licence was issued; and no royalty or renewal fee shall become payable under any such term or condition after the 31st day of May 1954.

(2) The amount of each renewal fee payable under paragraph (1) of this regulation in respect of any licence issued on a standard form under a title in the terms specified in the Second Schedule hereto shall be the amount specified in relation to that licence in the said Schedule.

(3) The amount of each renewal fee payable under paragraph (1) of this regulation in respect of any other licence shall be such as may in the particular case appear to the Postmaster-General to be proper.

(4) Paragraph (1) of regulation five shall apply to any licence specified in item 8 in the Second Schedule hereto and having effect as aforesaid, as if the references in the said paragraph (1) to the date on which the licence would cease to be in force if a renewal fee were not paid were references to the date on or before which the next renewal fee is payable under paragraph (1) of this regulation.

(5) Paragraph (2) of regulation five shall apply to any other licence having effect as aforesaid.

General

7. On the revocation or variation of a licence no part of any fee or royalty already paid or due to be paid shall be refunded or cease to be due unless the Postmaster-General so determines.

Date of commencement and short title

8. These regulations shall come into operation on the 1st day of June 1954, and may be cited as the Wireless Telegraphy (General Licence Charges) Regulations 1954.

Dated this 2nd day of April, 1954.

De La Warr,
Her Majesty's Postmaster-General.

We consent to these regulations.

Dennis Vosper,
Hendrie D. Oakshott,
Two of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury.

2nd April, 1954.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This Note is not part of the Regulations, but is intended to indicate their general purport.)

These Regulations provide for the fees payable in respect of wireless telegraphy licences, other than the sound and television broadcast receiving licences and broadcast relay station licences which are covered by the Wireless Telegraphy (Broadcast Licence Charges) Regulations, 1954 (S.I. 1954/438).

Issue and renewal fees for standard form licences are specified in the First Schedule.

Regulation 5 fixes the fees payable when a private mobile radio licence or a demonstration licence is varied by the addition of a wireless telegraphy station.

Regulation 6 provides for the renewal fees payable in respect of licences granted under the Wireless Telegraphy Acts, 1906 to 1926, the fees for standard form licences being specified in the Second Schedule.

The Regulations enable the Postmaster-General to fix the issue fee, renewal fee and (except as regards an experimental licence) the variation fee payable in respect of any special licence which is not on one of the standard forms referred to in the Schedules.
