C A P. XXXIX.

An Act to reduce the Number of Days of Muſter or Exerciſe of Yeomanry and Volunteer Cavalry.

[21ſt May 1816.]

WHEREAS it is expedient that the Number of Days Attendance at Muſter or Exerciſe, neceſſary to entitle Perſons ſerving in any Corps of Yeomanry or Volunteer Cavalry to be returned or certified as effective Members of ſuch Corps, ſhould be reduced; be it therefore enacted by the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty, by and with the Advice and Conſent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this preſent Parliament aſſembled, and by the Authority of the ſame, That from and after the paſſing of this Act the Number of Days Attendance at Muſter or Exerciſe of Corps of Yeomanry or Volunteer Cavalry, to entitle any Perſon ſerving in ſuch Corps to be returned or certified as an effective Member thereof, ſhall be Six in each Year, any Thing in any Act paſſed in the Forty-fourth Year of the Reign of His preſent Majeſty, relating to Volunteer Corps, to the contrary notwithſtanding; and the ſaid Act ſhall be conſtrued, as to all Returns and Certificates of Commanding Officers of ſuch Corps, or others, as if the Number of Days Attendance at Muſter or Exerciſe, ſpecified in the ſaid Act as neceſſary to entitle Perſons ſerving in Corps of Yeomanry or Volunteer Cavalry to be returned or certified as effective, had been Six inſtead of Twelve in each Year; and ſuch Number of Six Days ſhall in like Manner be divided into Two Days or Three equal Parts in each Four Months, inſtead of Four Days as in the ſaid Act provided, with ſuch Proviſions as to making good any Number of Days at different Periods, as are contained in the ſaid Act in relation to the Days of Muſter or Exerciſe ſpecified in the ſaid Act.

Six Days Attendance of Yeomanry and Volunteer Cavalry, to entitle Perſons to be returned as effective.

4 D   II. And

Five ſucceſſive Days to entitle Perſons to be ſo returned.

II. And be it further enacted, That in any Caſe where a Corps of Yeomanry or Volunteer Cavalry ſhould attend at Muſter or Exercife Five Days ſucceſſively, ſuch Five Days ſucceſſive Attendance ſhall entitle each Individual ſo attending to be returned or certified as effective, the ſame as if he had attended the whole Number of Six Days according to the Proviſions of this Act.
